JOSHUA GUNTER | NORTHEAST OHIO MEDIA GROUP Garfield Heights' Raymel Franklin drives for a basket against Mentor during the first half on Friday. Willie Jackson had 15 points and 15 rebounds in the Bulldogs' 61-42 victory.

Jackson's double-double paves the way for Bulldogs

MARK KERN mkern@cleveland.com

With just a couple of weeks before playoff seeding is determined, Friday night presented an opportunity for No. 6 Garfield Heights to show it deserves a high seed.

That is exactly what the Bulldogs (14-2, 4-1) did, as Willie ing streak earlier in the season, Jackson finished with 15 points and 15 rebounds to help Garfield Heights complete a season sweep of No. 7 Mentor, 61-42.

Shaker Heights all entered Friday with one loss in the Northeast Ohio Conference, and coach the deficit to eight. However, two Sonny Johnson knew his team point-blank shots were missed, had a chance to make a statement. "That is a big win for our team, lead back to 12 points. Mentor mance: "He's so athletic, and he there is no denying that," Johnson was unable to recover from that really showed tonight how tough said. "I really think our team is a completely different team than Crucial run: what we were earlier in the seaexample of that. Our guys knew that they would continue to battle, but we just had so many guys step up and make plays when we needed them. Mentor (9-5, 3-2) was able to two 3-pointers by junior Micah Potter, but the Bulldogs cranked it up on defense, going on a 29-8 run to end the half.

grabbing 12 rebounds What it means:

Last season, Mentor was able to get the season sweep, and that played a big role in determining playoff seeding. Being able to respond and sweep the Cardinals shows the Bulldogs have made progress.

After enduring a two-game los-Garfield Heights has five consecutive victories.

Play of the game:

Mentor was battling back in the Garfield Heights, Mentor and third quarter, cutting the deficit to 10 points when the Cardinals got a steal and had a chance to cut and Jackson got an easy layup for Garfield Heights to push the where on the court.

Jackson: He added four blocks to his double-double.

Who stood out for Mentor:

Potter: The 6-foot-9 junior is becoming a big-time prospect, and he did not disappoint on Friday night.

Garfield Heights sound bites:

Christian on his role on the team: "We have so many guys that can score the ball, that we will have a different player each night that goes off. Tonight, I was able to give my team a lift early.

Coach Johnson on the win: "We know how good of coach he is and how hard his teams are going to play, so for us to go out and get a victory like that, it really shows how well our team played."

son, and I think tonight is a good an 8-2 hole early, but sophomore guard Shawn Christian came in and got the team rolling with two 3-pointers.

Who stood out for Garfield Heights:

trigger a quick 8-2 start behind raving about his sophomore those shots either. We told our guards all year, and Christian came in and gave the Bulldogs a needed spark early with his 3-point shooting.

Frankie Hughes: The go-to double scoring 20 points and scorer, he can score from any- enough."

he is as well battling down low. He does so many things for us, a Garfield Heights found itself in lot of the things that don't show up in the stats."

Mentor sound bites:

Coach Bob Krizancic on his team shooting only three free throws: "To get to the free throw line only three times is just ter-Christian: Johnson has been rible. We did not make any of guys, we have had many good offensive players get to the line seven or eight times a game, and for us to get there only three times shows how we weren't aggressive

Boys basketball | Avon 80, Lakewood 71 Freshman Orr scores 26 in Eagles' win

TIM BIELIK tbielik@cleveland.com

Freshman DelShawn Orr's gamehigh 26 points led Avon's boys basketball team to an 80-71 win against West Shore Conference rival Lakewood on Friday.

The Eagles (10-5, 6-3) started the game on a 13-0 run in the first 3:16 and never trailed.

"My teammates were just telling me, 'Keep shooting, keep going, play defense,'" Orr said. "It just made me carry on to the offensive side."

With the win, Avon stayed in a tie for first place in the WSC with Elyria Catholic and Bay, who also won on Friday night.

Avon's Will Ybarra had 16 points and 13 rebounds, including 10 rebounds in the second half.

Lakewood (9-5, 5-4) cut the deficit to two in the third quarter before Avon's D'amonte Thornton hit two free throws and a 3-pointer from half court at the end of the quarter.

Malik Leisinger led the Rangers with 22 points.

What it means

The win keeps Avon in the race for the final WSC championship before the conference dissolves at the end of the school year. Avon is tied for first with Bay and Elvria Catholic.

Lakewood fell to a game back after being tied for first before the game

Play of the game

Thornton hit a deep bank 3-pointer from just inside half court before the buzzer to end the third quarter to give Avon a 56-49 lead. He had his initial shot blocked before his second chance went in.

"I honestly did not think I was going to make that," said Thornton, who had 12 points. "But as soon as I got it up in the air, I kind of had a good feeling it was going in. And I was surprised."

Critical run

Avon opened the game on a 13-0 run and never lost that lead. The Eagles also had an 14-4 run to regain a double-digit lead in the fourth quarter after Lakewood cut the lead to two points in the third quarter.

Who stood out for Avon

Zack Torbert: The senior forward helped get Avon going in the first half. He had 11 of his first 13 points in the first quarter and had four points in the Eagles' 13-0 run to start the game.

Ybarra: He helped control the p.m.

paint on both ends of the floor and was a part of a strong rebounding effort for Avon. He had 10 of his 13 rebounds in the second half to go with 16 points.

Who stood out for Lakewood

Wes Gerhardt: The senior point guard had eight of his 15 points in the third quarter to help get his team back into the game.

Nick Porter: He came off the bench to score 16 points, all after the first quarter.

Avon sound bites

Ybarra on Thornton's 3-pointer: "That was crazy. We were all just going nuts after that. It was something else."

Avon coach Kevin Sapara on Orr's big game: "The good thing about coaching a kid like DalShawn is being in a varsity basketball game, it doesn't really faze him. He feels like he belongs there."

Thornton: "All Coach [Sapara] preaches is defense, defense, defense, and that's all we think about. We care about defense more than offense."
