Jackets gorge on goals, win

Nick Foligno set a career high with his 19th and 20th goals of the season and also had an assist to lead the Blue Jackets past the St. Louis Blues 7-1 on Friday night in Columbus.

The defeat ended the Blues' seven-game winning streak and franchise-record 13-game points streak and broke the Blue Jackets' three-game losing skid. Ryan Johansen scored his first NHL short-handed goal, Corey Tropp tallied for the first

In Friday night's rematch, the Wildcats gave the Eagles all they could handle, but St. Edward senior forward Kipper Nichols scored 27 points to help the No. 5 Eagles (13-4) defeat No. 12 St. Ignatius (10-6), 63-55.

While Friday's victory proved much more difficult, Eagles coach Eric Flannery said he really liked how his team responded.

"We knew they were going to come out and give us all we wanted," Flannery said. "Anyone who knows or watches basketball knew they were going to come in fired up, and they did. Their guys came out and made a ton of plays and really made us work hard, but I love the way our responded and did what was needed to get the win."

suffered a head injury in the second quarter, and coach Sean O'Toole said he was taken to an area emergency room as a safety precaution.

What it means

St. Edward has swept the twogame, regular-season series with St. Ignatius for the past two years.

Two weeks ago the Eagles lost to MacDuffie (Mass.) in the final seconds of a game in which they had led. Friday night, St. Edward was able to come back from a deficit and get the victory.

Flannery said these are the type of games his team is going to have Eagles are gearing for a run at another state championship.

The Wildcats showed they can St. Ignatius sound bite play with anybody. Despite not Wildcats did a terrific job of making the Eagles have to work for everything down low.

Andre Wolford: He hit some big 3-pointers for the Wildcats on Friday night, giving the team a true deep threat.

St. Edward sound bite

Flannery:"In the playoffs, there are going to be games that you have to win when you don't play your best basketball. I am very to win later in the season, and the proud because our team did not play great, but when we needed to, we made the winning plays."

O'Toole: "We are not going having the Eagles' height, the hang a banner or anything like that, but I am extremely proud of how our team played. We competed so hard against them, but we need to make free throws at
