Pirates look to rebound to top of conference

ROCKY RIVER

By Ryan Kaczmarski

After finishing the 2012-2013 season as co-champs of the West Shore Conference, the Rocky River High School varsity boys basketball team took a little slide and finished last year with an overall record of 8-16.

Fourth-year head coach Michael Murray has a very experienced team coming back this year, and hopes are to get back to the top in this final season

Key returners for the Pirates include point guard Patrick Connors, guard Eric Jones, guard/forward Jack Corrigan, forward/center Jimmy Kinsley, forward/center Nathan Seffernick and guard/small forward Sutton Klodnick.

"Eric Jones was first team All-WSC last year and honorable mention All-District," Murray explained. "He was also selected team MVP. Eric is one of the most talented players in the area and will he a leader on our team.

"Patrick Connors was injured during the second half of the season but still was selected honorable mention All-WSC," he continued. "Patrick is a very talented and athletic guard, and the two of them should make us difficult to guard.

"Jack Corrigan had some big games for us last year. During the second half of the year he was consistently in double figures each game. I look for him to really take off this season.

"Both Nate and Jimmy have played a ton of varsity basketball. Both of them work well together and both can hit the outside jumper. Jimmy will see a lot of time at the 4 this year as well, and he has a big body to help create mismatches."

Newcomers to varsity this year include Florida transfer Zach Waite, forward Evan Nugent, guard Gary Mathews, guard Justin Monte and small forward Corey Zucker.

"This year we have more players returning than last year," Murray said.
"We gained valuable experience and became very competitive as the season

"We again play a very difficult schedule with some really tough non-league games as well. We are going to play a little different style this year. I believe we have more overall size and athleticism. Our commitment to our defensive schemes and tempo will be very important."

Rocky River junior Eric Jones can play both the point and shooting guard positions, and brings 13.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.8 steals per game to the Pirates lineup. Photo – Ryan Kaczmarski

River's big third quarter leads to win over Fairview

Story by Jim Horvath Photos and video by Larry Bennet

Throughout most of the first half, Fairview was playing on even terms with longtime rival Rocky River. But as halftime approached, a few warning signs started popping up for the visiting Warriors

A missed layup here. A hastily-shot 3-pointer there.

And as the third quarter began, the Pirates began to take advantage of Fairview's shooting woes. Their transition game fed off the numerous missed shots as they outscored the visitors, 22-6, in the guarter and ran away with a 62-36 win Friday night in the season opener for both teams.

"In the first half, I loved what I saw out of my team," said Fairview head coach Pete Maienknecht, whose team played dead even with River for the first 10-plus minutes of the game

"We came out and battled. We were poised early in the game, which was great for it being the first game and an arch-rival type of game. I think it's really important that you come out and take care of the basketball in that situation

"You've got to be very poised and sure with the ball, and I thought early on we did a pretty good job," he said.

The Warriors did just that. They committed just six turnovers in the half, while Rocky River committed 10 miscues and looked stagnant offensively at times. But with every missed shot, the Pirates were able to get their transition game up and running.

Fairview had tied the game at 12-12 on a drive down the lane from junior guard Jared Butler. The two teams traded missed free throws before River senior Jimmy Kinsley scored inside off an offensive rebound. He was fouled on the play, and hit the resulting free throw for a 15-12 Pirate lead.

Then, I thought we got a little discouraged and started to get impatient on offense. Guys started playing hero basketball nstead of team ball. We took some ill-advised shots that led to quick transition for Rocky River.

"And our defensive transition really broke down in the second half. When Rocky River was able to get running like that, they got on a roll and got going. Things kind of snowballed

Maienknecht also felt his team had problems solving River's zone defense in the second half.

"They went to that zone, and it disrupted our rhythm, We didn't do a good job staving poised, working the gaps and trying to distort that zone. Instead of being patient, we kind of forced things" he said.

"They pay five guards predominantly out there, and all five of those guys can shoot it," Murray said. "We thought by going zone and using a little bit of length, we could push them out a little bit further.

"I think they shot a little deeper than they wanted, and that led to some transition for us there at the start of the third quarter. We were able to get some transition baskets and build our lead," he said.

For the game, Williams and junior Derek Schwarber led the way with nine points each. Butler was close behind with eight, while senior Liam McCafferty chipped in with six. But that wasn't nearly enough to offset the Warriors' overall shooting slump and a 50-21 deficit on the boards.

"According to our shot chart, we were seven for 21 on layups and four of 22 from the 3-point line," Maienknecht said. "I liked what we were doing on offense early in the game. We were getting what we wanted, but we missed a lot of shots that you've got to make."

Rocky River, which never trailed in the game, took off from there, A steal for two from senior Sutton Klodnick led to a Fairview timeout with 4:56 left in the half. The Pirates closed out the quarter with a modest 8-4 run to make it 25-16 at the half.

"It was the first game of the year, and we knew there was going to be a little struggle there in the first quarter," said River head coach Michael Murray, "But it extended through the first half.

"I credit Fairview for really attacking us, and that put us on our heels a bit defensively," he said. "I thought they did a nice job spreading us out and getting into the gaps. Then we go into halftime with 10 tumovers and only two assists."

"We're changing our offense around, and we're trying to play with more pace. But for awhile there, it was too much dribbling and not enough sharing the basketball. I think in the second half, we had eight assists and only five turnovers, so we played much better," he said.

Did thev.

The Pirates came out with an 8-0 run to start the third quarter. Kinsley hit a pair of free throws, then senior Pat Connors got a steal for two. A Connors fast break hoop off an assist from junior Eric Jones kept that quicker pace going, and a rebound for two from junior Jack Corrigan had the Pirates up 33-16.

A baseline drive for two by senior Ryan Williams got Fairview on the board and sparked a 6-2 Warrior run. But River closed out the quarter with a 12-0 stretch that started with a Klodnick trey and ended with a pair of free throws from senior Gary Matthews.

"In the second half, we continued to miss some shots that we needed to go down," Maienknecht said. "That would have changed the rhythm and momentum of the game, but we couldn't get that to happen.

River's balanced effort was led by junior Evan Nugent's 11 points off the bench, Corrigan. Jones and Kinsely each had nine points, while Connors and Klodnick each added seven.

"I credit our kids with the depth we showed tonight," Murray said. "We played a lot of kids and our guys that came off the bench played well.

"I do think we have some guys who can fill it up. But when we shared the basketball like we did in the second half and got out in transition, it was nice," Murray said. "Different guys were able to get to the rim and score.

"And then we rebounded the basketball very

Herman wins Broyles award

Herman wins Broyles award
Ohio State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Tom Herman was named the winner of the Broyles Award on Tuesday, after the Buckeyes made the College Football Playoff despite losing two starting quarterbacks to season-ending injuries. The Buckeyes went 12-1 and beat Wisconsis 59-0 in the Big Ten championship game despite using their third starter of the year. "It's the hand we were dealt, and we played it," Herman said. Other finalists included offensive coordinators Lane Kiffinal talbalman, Scott Prost for Oregon and Doug Meacham at TCU and Missouri defensive coordinator Dave Stecke. tor Dave Steckel.

Emmert frets about UAB cuts

Emmert frets about UAB cuts
NCAA President Mark Emmert said Tuesday that it was troubling to see the University of Alabama Birmingham drop its football program, but he believes Olympic sports are more vulnerable to cuts as schools look at athletic budgets. Emmert told the Associated Press that he worries that while autonomy for the Big Five conferences will lead to more money being spent on athletes, it could decrease the overall number of opportunities in college sports for students. UAB dropped its football program last week, citing the rising costs of college athletics, including pressure to pay the full cost of attendance for athletes. That proposal was supported by Emmert and pushed by the wealthlest conferences.

Conlan, Thomas join Hall

Shane Conlan, the former All-America linebacker who helped Penn State win their last national ti-Snahe Conlan, the ormer Au-America meoacser who helped Penn State win their last national title, is part of a class of 14 former players and two coaches inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Thesday. The group of honorees included: North Carolina cornerback Dre Bity, Southern California offensive tackle Tony Boselli; Purdue defensive tackle Buttz, Georgia Teden quarterback. Joe Hamilton; Maine linebacker John Huard; Stanford halfback Darrin Nelson; Louisiana Tech offensive tackle Willie Roaf; South Carolina wide receiver Sterling Shape; McNeses State comerback Leonard Smith; TCU running back LaDainian Tomlinson; Sterling Shape; McNeses State comerback Leonard Smith; TCU running back LaDainian Tomlinson; Mssissippi tight end Wesley Walls; and the late Derrick Thomas, who dominated at linebacker for Alabama. The coaches are Jerry Moore, who won I-AA titles at Appalachian State, and Mike Bellotti, the winningest coach in Oregon history.

UM's Funchess enters draft

Michigan wide receiver Devin Funchess has de-clared for the 2015 NFL draft. The junior announced his decision on Tuesday. He had 62 recep-tions for 733 yards and four touchdowns this sea-son. Funchess says in a release that it has been his dream to play in the NFL and he's "prepared to take the next step" on that journey. The announcement comes a week after coach Brady Hoke was fired. The Wolverines struggled to a 5-7 record this season.

Pele released from hospital

After going through a "scare" and spending time in intensive care because of a urinary tract infection, Brazilian socce great Pele left the hospital Tuesday after a two-week stay. Doctors said the 74-year-old Pele will continue his recovery process at home and will need to rest for about a week.

St. Edward wrestling coach Greg Urbas once said the Walsh Jesuit Ironman is where state champions come to die. But after one day of the 21st edition of the tournament, Northeast Ohio's two returning state champions are still very much alive.

Walsh Jesuit's Alex Mackall (120 pounds) and Wadsworth's Noah Baughman (113), both ju-niors and seeded sixth, will join niors and seeded sixth, will join 10 other local wrestlers in today's quarterfinals at Walsh Jesuit. Wrestling begins at 10 a.m., with the finals at 6 p.m. Of the 10 othio state champions at this year's Iroman, eight reached the quarterfinals.

The area's only top-seeded wrestler, Breckwille senior Austin Assad (126), won both his matches by major decision and

So while, yes, North Olmsted has the luxury of a game-changing, 6-foot-6, inside-outside threat in Andy Lucien, the Eagles will need more to truly make some noise.
And it appears they have it. On Friday against Olmsted Falls, more came from a fourth-quarter surge from senior Matt Starcovic, whose emispoint burst early in the quarter turned a close game into a routi nesemingly the blink of an eye. North Olmsted finished off the Bulldogs 74-65 to improve to 5-0 and 3-0 in the Southwestern Conference. Lucien led the way with 22 points and 13 rebounds, while Starcovic finished with 17, 16 in the second half.
"I wasn't feeling it the first half — (I got) a rest, and I started hitting them," said Starcovic, who credited his success last year — he hit d)-pointers — in helping him develop confidence on the court. "Ive taken that into this year."

The Bulldogs (2-3, 1-2) hung around for 25 minutes of play, using their press to force a few turnovers and their 3-point shoot government of the started hitting them had four of those seven, sand the started hitting them had four of those seven, sand the started hitting them had four of those seven, sand had not of those seven, sand witched around a froy Hurrrell three.
But Starcovic, whold struggled in the first half with turnovers and missing a few easy ones, then took over. He hit a contested 3-pointer after a nice save in the corner by teammate Ryan Coleman, then knocks another down in transition off a turnover. He then made one of two free throws, starvoic,—confidence to the few should be subsequent. Coleman and Lucien added subsequent.

tion as the Lutheran West Long-horns made just enough adjust-ments to circumstances to regis-ter a 53-43 win against a relent-less Firelands Falcons team.

Things started out as the push-and-press Longhorns normally expect with a fast-paced offense and kinetic defense produced a 21-11 first-quarter lead in a game that looked like it might become an indoor track meet.

The Falcons (1-3, 0-3 PAC) were not going to be run out of the gym, however, and roared back with a strong quarter of their own, outscoring Lutheran West 19-12 to close to within 33-30 by halfitime.

It was Vermilion freshman Joby Pfeil's fadeaway, please-go-in-shot that gave the Sailors a 59-57 win at the buzzer against the host Rocky River Pirates on Dec. 19.

"It felt amazing. The crowd was around me, jumping around. It was exciting and probably the best feeling in my life," Pfeil said.

Vermilion coach Kurt Habermehl acknowledged Pfeil and his awareness to get a shot off in time.

was winding down, and he did a great job getting that shot off," Habermehl said. "I'm not even sure if he saw the rim because there was someone in his face. Give him a lot of credit. He kept his composure and managed to get a good shot off."

Trailing by as many as eight in the fourth quarter, Rocky River's Jimmy Kinsley gave the Pirates its first lead of the game, sinking both free throws on the one-and-one, giving his team a 55-53 advantage.

With under a minute to go, Vermilion's Kyle Nader put his team up, and with the ball in his hands, Nader forced a tough jumper from the right wing, only to be rebounded

"Joby has been contributing very well. He's a very defensive-minded player and we all trust him a lot offensively and defensively and he made a great shot," Nader said. "We're all happy for him right now.

Pfeil has been getting reps the past "He knew the situation, he knew it two weeks due to illness and injuries to the Vermilion team.

> Despite Rocky River's lead for a brief moment in the fourth quarter, Pirates coach Michael Murray said his team didn't deserve to win the game.

> "Our kids played hard to get back into it. We were scrambling all night," Murray said. "We were lucky to get back into it ... the game was lost more in the first half with our failure to execute than it was at the end of the game."

"I can't say enough about Caleb Waller's on-the-ball defense tonight because he made them (Rocky River) work the entire game ... it's nice to get the ball at the end of the game to at least give yourself a chance."

> Nader, who came into tonight's game averaging 30 points, dropped 27 and grabbed seven rebounds. He was also 8 for 11 from the free-throw line. Waller scored 13 and was 3 of 6 from 3-point land.

> Jack Corrigan led Rocky River with 16 points and Eric Jones chipped in with 12.

> Vermilion's win against Rocky River gives the Sailors their first win in the West Shore Conference. With a buzzerbeating win, Nader said it's a great victory to move forward with.

> "We were waiting for this game, we had to bounce back after two losses ... with those, I think it was great for us to come out on top," Nader said.

Driver investigation done
The police investigation into allegations that NAS-CAR driver Kurt Busch assaulted his ex-girlfriend is complete and has been forwarded to Delaware prosecutors to decide whether charges will be filed, authorities said Tuesday. The Dover Police Department finished its investigation into allegations against Busch, 36, but an agency spokesman declined to say whether investigators were recommending that the be charged. The spokesman, Cpt. Mark Hoffman, declined to release the report. Busch's ex-girlfriend, Patricia Driscoll, says Busch choked her and smashed her head into a wall three times inside his motorhome at Dover Busch choked her and smashed her head into a wall three times inside his motorhome at Dover International Speedway in September. ... Entering drug treatment

UFC light-heavyweight champion Jon Jones has entered a drug treatment facility, according to a report Tuesday from Yahoo Sports. The report said Jones tested positive on Dec. 4 for benzoyleegonine, which is the main metabolite for coalmine, Jones is coming off perhaps his signature victory Saturday, a unanimous decision over Daniel Cormier at UFC 182 in Las Vegas. Jones outworked Cormier, a two-time U.S. Olympic wrestler and previously undefeated MMA fighter, to win the five-round fight decisively.

Nadal ousted, Djokovic rolls Defending champion Rafael Nadal was ushered to the exit, while top-seeded Novak Djokovic to the exit, while top-seeded Novak Djokovic cruised through his first match of the season at the Qatar Open on Tuesday. The second-seeded Nadal, showing desire but displaying a rusty game, was upset by German qualifier Michael Berrer 1-6, 3-6-4 in the first round. It was Nadall's stim that since losing in the Basel quarterfinals to 17-year-old Borna Corie of Croatia in October. COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Michigan hires Drevno as OC

MICHIGAN INITES DrEVINO AS OC.
Michigan hired Tim Drevno to serve as the offensive coordinator for new football coach Jim Harbaugh. Drevno was the running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern California last season, and he has worked with Harbaugh extensively in the past. Drevno also will coach Michigans offensive line. He was the offensive line coach under Harbaugh with the NPL's 49ers during the 2011 to '13 seasons. At the college level, he was on Harbaugh's staff at both Stanford (2007-10) and San Diego (2003-06).

Snyder an assistant at MSU

Michigan State hired Mark Snyder as lineback-ers coach and special teams coordinator. He was the defensive coordinator at Texas A&M before being fired in November. Snyder has worked with Michigan State coach Mark Dantonio before. He was the linebackers coach at Ohio State from 2001 to '03 while Dantonio was the defensive coordinator.

Ref barred from ACC games

A veteran refere accused of making an ethnic slur at a Wake Forest booster will not work any further Atlantic Coast Conference games this season, a person familiar with the situation told the Associated Press. The decision came days after Mit Shah, a prominent booster of Indian descent, accused official Karl Hess of aiming the remark at him during last Sunday's Louisville-Wake Forest game. Shah posted to Twitter that Hess told him he wanted to sit in Shah's seat and watch him ref a game. The slur came during that

Young, Orioles finalize deal

NOIII9, UTIOIES IIII.AII.ZE (ICAI Outfielder Delimo Young finalized a $2.25 million, one-year contract to play a second season with Baltimore. Young batted .302 with seven homers and 30 RBI in 83 games in 2014, his first season with Baltimore. He was most productive as a pinch hitter, going 10-for-20. Originally selected by the Tampa Bay Rays with the first overall pick in the 2003 amateur draft, the 29-year-old Young has a .283 batting average over 1,066 games.

Henley leads in Hawaii

Russell Henley found Kapalua, Hawaii, to be a lot more fun the second time around. Henley ran off eight birdies on a gorgeous day for an 8-under 65 on Priday. That gave him a one-shot lead over Bae Sang-Moon in the opening round of the Hyundai Tournament of Champions. Henley made his debut last year in the winners-only event that starts the season and never broke 70.

Sullivan up, Els down

Andy Sullivan shot a 2-under 70 to take a one-shot lead at the South African Open in Johan-nesburg, while Ernie Els wiped out a promising start with a 77 in the second round to tumble out of contention at his home tournament. Sul-livan moved to 8-under 136 to sit a stroke ahead livan moved to 8-under 136 to sit a stroke ahead of Charl Schwartzel (69). Els, searching for his first tournament win since June 2013, opened with a promising 67. But he undid that with three bogeys and consecutive triple-bogey 7s at Nos. 9 and 10 to fall from third overnight to a tie for 34th.

OBITUARY

Roy Tarpley dies at 50

Roy Tarpley (dies at 50
Roy Tarpley, the former Dallas Mavericks star center whose NBA career was cut short by drug abuse, has died. He was 50. A Tarrant County (Texas) medical examiner's report says Tarpley died Friday afternoon at Texas Health Arlington Memorial Hospital. No cause of death was given in the online report. The 7-foot Tarpley was the seventh pick in the 1986 NBA Draft out of Michigan. He played for the Mavs until October 1991, when he was kicked out of the NBA for using cocaine. He played in Greece until the NBA reinstated him in 1994. He signed a six-year, $20 million contract with the Mavericks but was permanently banned from the NBA in December manently banned from the NBA in December 1995 for using alcohol and violating the terms of a court-imposed personal aftercare program. Tarpley averaged 12.6 points and 10.0 rebounds in 280 career NBA gam

Rangers feel good, keep wins coming

Dan Gilles The Chronicle-Telegram

NORTH RIDGEVILLE - After winning only six games last season and 10 over the last two seasons, the North Ridgeville Rangers certainly aren't taking winning for granted.

seasons, the North Ridgeville Rangers certainly aren't taking winning for granted.

While it wasn't the prettiest performance of the season Tuesday night, the Rangers put away Rocky River 53-42 in West Shore Conference play to improve to 8-4, 4-2 in the league.

We're thrilled to be where we are after 12 games,' Rangers coach Bryan Mogras said. 'I told a lot of people at the beginning of the season that this is a lot of pressure for me because I can no longer say. 'We don't have the guys.'

"Well, we've got the guys now, and it's our job to put them in the right spot. We would have loved to have been able to pull off that win over Elyria (last month), but we've been playing some pretty good basketball teams. To be 8-4 at this point, we're pretty happy with that.'' Rocky River (4-7, 1-5) rallied from a 16-4 deficit early in the second quarter to get within 23-21 at the half. Then the Pirates survived a tough third quarter to trail 32-30 before the Rangers' Jordan Montgomery hit a 3-pointer just before the buzzer.

That 3-pointer just before the buzzer.

That 3-pointer kick-started a spurt of eight unanswered points, which turned into a 14-2 run that moved North Ridgeville comfortably ahead 46-32 with 4:26 remaining Three-pointers paid off big in that gamechanging run for the Rangers, who sank four of their seven during that stretch. And they spread the wealth as Montgomery, Isa Abdel-Alim, Collin Sullinger and Tyter Amold hit them.

"Rocky River kept coming back at us," Morgan said. "If we can finish a bit more, Id be happier, but I thought we got some stops when we needed to on the defensive end, which was big." Arnold had 13 points and five rebounds, while Abdel-Alim had 11 points and five rebounds to pace a balanced scoring effort for the Rangers. Montgomery added uine, while sullinger and Cory Draft finished with six each. "We knew their record wasn't that good, but we also knew they weren't going to be an easy game," Abdel-Alim said. "We knew that, if they played their game, they could have a chance to beat us. We just had to make sure we played our best."

The Rangers forced Rocky River into 19 turnovers and outrebounded the Pirates 34-23. Neither team shot particularly well, but the rebounding edge led to many one-shot possessions and some second-chance points. "That's huge for us," Morgan said. "That's huge for us," Morgan said.

ELYRIA — Twin brothers Chase and Chad Parker put up some pretty impressive num-bers for First Baptist Christian bers for First Baptist Christian School on Tuesday night against Cleveland Horizon Science. Chase poured in 30 points and Chad 19, but unfortunately for the Sabres (5-8), basketball suplayed with five players not two and Horizon Science romped to an 89-62 victory in a Lake Effect Conference game. Horizon (9-1, 6-0) had 11 of 14 players score, three in double figures, while the Sabres' other seven players scored just 13. Chase Parker hit seven 3-point goals, one of them nearly at the half-court line, and Chad had two.

"I liked the way they contin-ued to play hard the whole game no matter how much they trailed," First Baptist coach Dar

Rangers feel good, keep wins coming

Dan Gilles The Chronicle-Telegram

NORTH RIDGEVILLE — After winning only six games last season and 10 over the last two seasons, the North Ridgeville Rangers certainly aren't taking winning for granted.

While it wasn't the prettiest performance of the season Tuesday night, the Rangers put away Rocky River 53-42 in West Shore Conference play to improve to 8-4, 4-2 in the league.

'We're thrilled to be where we are after 12 games," Rangers coach Bryan Morgan said. "I told a lot of people at the beginning of the season that this is a lot of pressure for me because I can no longer say, 'We don't have the guys.'

'Well, we've got the guys now, and it's our job to put them in the right spot. We would have loved to have been able to pull off that win over Elyria (last month), but we've been playing some pretty good basketball teams. To be 8-4 at this point, we're pretty happy with that."

Rocky River (4-7, 1-5) rallied from a 16-4 deficit early in the second quarter to get within 23-21 at the half. Then the Pirates survived a tough third quarter to trail 32-30 before the Rangers' Jordan Montgomery hit a 3-pointer just before the buzzer.

That 3-pointer kick-started a spurt of eight unanswered points, which turned into a 14-2 run that moved North Ridgeville comfortably ahead 46-32 with 4:26 remaining.

Three-pointers paid off big in that gamechanging run for the Rangers, who sank four of their seven during that stretch. And they spread the wealth as Montgomery, Isa Abdel-Alim, Collin Sullinger and Tyler Arnold hit them.

"Rocky River kept coming back at us," Morgan said. "If we can finish a bit more, I'd be happier, but I thought we got some stops when we needed to on the defensive end, which was big."

Arnold had 13 points and five rebounds, while Abdel-Alim had 11 points and five rebounds to pace a balanced scoring effort for the Rangers. Montgomery added nine, while Sullinger and Cory Draft finished with six each.

"We knew their record wasn't that good, but we also knew they weren't going to be an easy game," Abdel-Alim said. "We knew that, if they played their game, they could have a chance to beat us. We just had to make sure we played our best."

The Rangers forced Rocky River into 19 turnovers and outrebounded the Pirates 34-23. Neither team shot particularly well, but the rebounding edge led to many one-shot possessions and some second-chance points.

"That's huge for us," Morgan said.

Stupka moved to Elyria Catholic two years ago from Lutheran West after a teaching job became available. He agreed to coach the wide receivers last season for Mile. Polevacik, who resigned as the Panthers head coach two weeks ago.
"The opportunity to be a teacher here was the No. 1 priority," Stupka said. "My family has a great belief in Catholic education and to have the opportunity to be a teacher here as well as a coach was at the forefront for me."

After a slow start to their 2014-15 season. the Rocky River Pirates will have a tough time winning the final West Shore Conference championship.

But if Friday night's game with WSC contender Lakewood was any indication, they could have a big say in who does.

The Pirates jumped out to a big lead early and pulled off a 12-0 run in the third quarter to stun the Rangers, 71-60, on a night that threw the WSC race into a logjam. River's second conference win played a big part in sending the conference race into a four-way tie.

Bay and Lakewood, who came into Friday night tied for first, both lost, Bay, which had won nine in a row, saw a double digit lead slip away in an 86-79 loss to Elyria Catholic. In the meantime, Avon was putting a 66-48 beatdown on Midview.

Those results put Avon, Bay, EC and Lakewood atop the WSC standings, each at 5-3, with six games remaining. Midview and North Ridgeville, a 39-36 loser against Vermilion, are tied for second at 4-4.

Rocky River is just 2-6 in the WSC, but Pirates head coach Michael Murray felt the best was yet to "Early in the year, we played well and lost some close games," said Murray, whose team moved to 5-7 overall. Then we went through a time where we had some kids injured and other kids getting sick.

"That's no excuse, but in getting kids back to practice, we've been able to work on things. You can see during the games that their confidence is much higher, and they're playing with a lot better pace offensively. We're able to create off the dribble and share the basketball more.

"We're able to spread things out more, and today, we were able to get the ball inside. We got our bigs some touches, and that hasn't happened in the past," he said.

Murray's Pirates got a lot of touches early and often, Down 3-0, River got three straight 3-pointers from junior guard Jack Corrigan. He connected from both corners and the right wing, prompting Lakewood head coach Phil Argento to call a timeout just 2:07 into the game.

But the break did nothing to slow down the Pirates, who connected on eight of 13 from the floor in the quarter with five treys, four of them from Corrigan. River led 21-11 after one quarter and 36-27 at the half,

"Getting off to a good start is important to us," Murray said. "We haven't done that early in the year, but the last couple

"That's really helped us. We got off to a good start defensively as well, and that helped springboard us," Murray continued. "They're very hard to guard. Not only do they shoot it well, they drive it well and pass well. What we tried to do was make them take tough shots, and I thought we did that.

"They buried some in the first half with a hand in their face, but for the most part we stayed in front of them and made them take tough shots," he said,

The Rangers scored first in the third quarter on a reverse layup from senior Joe Malone. At 36-29, the visitors were still within range, but what happened in the next five-plus minutes changed all River went on a 12-0 run, starting with an offensive rebound for two from junior Evan Nugent. A pair of free throws from junior Eric Jones and another 3-pointer from Corrigan had the Rangers back on their collective heels.

Jones hit on another drive, then the march to the free throw line began. The Pirates made just three of their next six attempts, but by then the lead had grown to 19 points, 48-29, with 2:11 left in the quarter.

Things got worse for the Rangers when River reached the bonus with 1:15 left in the third. For the game, the Pirates made 19 of 26 free throws to Lakewood's seven of 12. The home team made nine of 12 attempts in the game's final 3:10 to help close out the game.

After a lengthy post-game discussion in the Rangers' locker room, Argento didn't mince any words concerning his

"We just had a very serious conversation with our guys about where they want to go, what they want to do and how they want to do it," he said.

"We played tonight like we've practiced, and that's a bigger issue for us. It trumps what Rocky River was doing," Argento said, "The things that every coach is trying to do in practices is to get better and show improvement in different phases of the game, whether it's offensive execution or defensive intensity, We haven't been getting better,

"At the beginning of the second round, you should be seeing guys who weren't doing things earlier in the year start to get it. We're not getting it, and that's a serious problem," he added.

Corrigan, thanks to a 16-point first half, wound up with a game-high 22 points.

"Jack has done an amazing job this year," Murray said.

"He's played in a couple of games where he's had maybe two reps of practice just from being sick," Murray recalled. "Then he had a high ankle sprain, but he's never complained. He missed a game, and he went through a stretch where he could barely practice.

"Now he's getting his reps in practice, and it's great to see that hard work pay off. The last couple of games, you've seen the Jack Corrigan that we knew we had," he added.

Jones was right behind Corrigan with 20 points, Pat Connors chipped in with eight points, while Jimmy Kinsley had seven rounds. River outrebounded the Rangers, 31-24.

1/25/2015

For Lakewood, senior guard Nick Porter led the team with 15 points, while Justin McDonald came off the bench to add 12 points. Wes Gerhardt had nine points, while Malik Leisinger added eight points and six

As for the WSC race, Argento took a wait and see approach,

"We'll see. We've got a big week coming up with Avon and Bay," Argento said. "If we're all on the same page, it'll look like it. If we aren't, it'll look like that too.

"But even when you buy in, and you're making that complete commitment and showing the mental toughness to overcome the negative things that happen, you still don't

"We had bad shot selection, a complete lack of effort rebounding, and you pay for that," he added.

Sunahara sparks Rocket rally, WSC win over River

Story by Jim Horvath
Photos and video by Larry Bennet

Coming off a tough loss to Elyria Catholic, the Bay Rockets found themselves trailing Rocky River at the half, 31-25. The Pirate lead grew to nine as Eric Jones drilled a 3-pointer to open the second half.

That's when Rex Sunahara and the Rockets went off.

Bay, with their senior center scoring 16 of his 25 points in the quarter, blindsided Rocky River with an 18-2 run to take the lead. And this time, the Rockets held on to their fourth quarter lead and came away with a 66-55 West Shore Conference win Friday night at The Launch Pad.

Bay moved to 10-5 overall and maintained a share of the WSC lead with Avon and EC. The Eagles got past Lakewood, 80-71, Friday night, while the Panthers took down Vermilion, 56-49.

Rocky River had held the lead throughout most of the first half, with Jack Corrigan hitting the second of his four first-half threes to put his team ahead at 11-8. The Pirates lead 18-12 after one quarter and scored the last six points of the second quarter for their 31-25 halftime lead.

But after Jones hit his 3-pointer to open the second half, it was as if someone flicked the switch for Bay.

And especially for Sunahara.

Senior Alec White, who was assigned to guard Corrigan in the second half, got things started for the Rockets with a rebound for two. Then Sunahara, after a relatively quiet first half, launched and hit a 3-pointer from the right corner.

NICK 2

"Danny hit two big shots there, and Brandon Morriss was down low doing what he does best and getting boards. And Alec came in and played one heck of a game off the bench.

"I can't give them enough credit. Without them, I can't do what I did." he added.

Rocky River hung close early in the fourth quarter. Corrigan hit a medium-range jumper to pull the Pirates to within six, 50-44, then Jones went coast-to-coast for a layup to make it 50-46,

But Heideloff came back with a 3-pointer, and Sunahara drilled another trey form the top of the key to keep things rolling the Rockets' way. Sunahara's trey sparked a 9-0 run that put the game out of reach at 62-49.

That run ended on Sunahara's second slam dunk of the game off an assist from junior John Koz.

"A couple of those threes they hit, you really don't expect," Murray said. "But give them credit. They were playing hard.

"We still managed to get back into it there in the fourth quarter. At one point we got it back down to four, but we just couldn't score much after that. We went cold, and we didn't get enough stops at the defensive end,"

Corrigan, who was held to six points in the second half, led the Pirates with 20 points. Jones finished with 13 points, while Nate Seffemick added seven.

For Bay, Heideloff and White each scored 12 points, while Morriss had 11 points and nine rebounds.

Back-to-back drives to the hoop from senior guard Danny Heideloff tied the game at 34-34, and the momentum looked to be clearly in the home team's favor.

But Corrigan hit a driving jumper to put the Pirates back in the lead at 36-34, prompting Bay head coach Jared Shetzer to call a timeout.

"At that point, we just wanted to re-emphasize some of the things we talked about at halftime," Shetzer said. "Either we were going to do it or we weren't."

From that point on, Shetzer's crew kicked things up another notch. Sunahara hit a baseline jumper, then White scored on a baseline drive. Seconds later, Sunahara put down a two-handed slam dunk to make it 40-36, Rockets with 2:44 left in the third quarter.

Timeout, Rocky River.

"You have to give Bay's kids credit," said Rocky River head coach Michael Murray. "I thought they made a great run there."

After the timeout, that Rocket run continued, Sunahara drained another trey from the right corner, this one glancing off the glass. Jones countered with a jumper, but then Sunahara answered right back with an NBA-range trey from the top of the key that banked in.

Sunahara finished his big quarter with a conventional 3-point play with 33.3 seconds left. When the smoke cleared, Bay held a 49-42 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

"It wasn't just me out there," Sunahara said after the game. "My teammates were setting me up very well. They were passing the ball around and getting me open.

"In the first half, we played Rocky River's game," Shetzer said. "In the second half, we got out and ran.

"We played the tempo and style we wanted to play," Shetzer continued. "Anytime you play Rocky River, they're going to try to slow you down and make you play their tempo. They did that for two quarters tonight.

"We threw a challenge at out guys at halftime: 'If you're going to run, run, If you're not going to run, forget it because we're not going to win.' Alec came in and played probably the best game he has all season. We put him on Corrigan, and he did a great job," he said.

Bay's next challenge will be against Lakewood Tuesday night when they take on the Rangers at Harding Middle School. Avon will be at North Ridgeville, while Elyria Catholic will host Midview.

Rocky River will host Vermilion the same night.

Midview junior Dimitri Redwood tied it at 16 before Rangers senior Tyler Arnold sank his third trey of the day to boost North Ridgeville ahead, 19-16.

Sullinger banked his second 3 with two minutes remaining in the quarter for a 45-37 North Ridgeville lead. Randolph responded with a 3 of his own as the Middies cut the difference to trail by one heading into the final stanza.

Bay led, 49-42, entering the final

"We got out and we ran," Shetzer said. "We played the tempo and the style that we want to play. Anytime you play Rocky River, they're going to try and slow you down and make you play their tempo. They did that for two quarters. We threw the challenge at the guys that if you're going to run, run. If you're not going to run, forget it because we aren't going to win."

Sunahara who finished the game with 25 points, seven rebounds and four blocks - opened his scor-corner to cut the Rocky River lead to 34-30. A pair of layups by Bay senior Danny Heideloff knotted the game at 34-34 with 5:04 remaining in the quarter, but Evan Nugent's jumper for the Pirates put them back on top, 36-34. Sunahara hit a deep jumper from the left elbow to knot it back up and senior Alec White hit a baseline layup to give Bay a 38-36 lead. It was the Rockets' first lead since a 6-5 advantage with 5:22 remaining in the first quarter.

"Alec White played probably the best game he's played all season," Shetzer said. "He's a guy who sometimes can be a turnover problem, for him.

That was Sunahara's cue to completely take over.

Sunahara could not miss to end the quarter, slamming home a dunk to put the Rockets up 40-36 and followed it with a 3-pointer from the right corner that somehow touched glass before going in.

"Man, I have no idea," Sunahara aid about his third quarter. "I yelled that the one was off and it somehow just kicked off the glass and went in. You know, my friend and I practice bank shots all the time, but I don't think that one was really meant to be a bank shot."

The practice paid off, as Sunahara

He closed out his dominating quarter with a layup in which he was fouled hard and converted the and-1 to put the Rockets up, 49-42, entering the fourth.

"It's not really me," Sunahara said. "My teammates were setting me up very well. They were passing the ball around and getting me open. Danny Heideloff hit two big shots. Brandon Morriss is down there doing what he does best and getting boards. Alec White comes in and plays a heck of a game off the bench.

"I can't credit enough to them. bly the difference."

The Pirates tried to get back into the game in the fourth, cutting the lead to as little as four points, but the Rockets used a 9-2 run over a fourminute span to put the game out of reach.

"You have to give Bay's kids credit," Rocky River coach Michael Murray said. "I thought they made a great run there. A couple of those banked 3s ... you don't expect there, but they were playing hard.

"We got back into it and were down by four, but we just couldn't score and went kind of cold and just couldn't get stops. That was probaHIGH SCHOOLS than that. Vermilion and Rocky River entered the contest on Feb. 3 knotted for fifth place in the West Shore Conference, both 2-7 in basketball league play. The last time they met, it was Vermilion freshman Joby Pfeil's buzzer-beater that gave the Sailors the edge.

This time, it came down to the final seven seconds as Vermilion emerged the victor, 39-36.

Senior Kyle Nader's two free throws sealed the win for Sailors after Rocky River junior Jack Corrigan had cut Vermilion's lead to one with a putback with 35 seconds left.

Nader led Vermilion with 20 points.

It was a clash of the defenses that kept the game close, highlighted by Vermilion's impenetrable defense in the third quarter.

The Pirates led through most of the first half, carrying a 12-9 lead into the second quarter after senior Nate Seffernick added two after a Sailors' turnover.

Vermilion tied it at 15 early in the second quarter as senior Ryan Barnes hit a 3 on a feed from Nader.

But six straight points from junior Eric Jones boosted Rocky River to a 21-15 lead with four minutes remaining in the half. The Sailors battled back to cut the lead to one.

Caddies sue over logos

Agroup of PGA Tour caddies sued the PGA Tour in federal court for making them wear bits that have the logo of the tournament sponsors without sharing in what it estimates as $50 million endorsement revenue. The class-action suit on behalf of $1 caddies was filed in San Francisco, where former UCLA baskethall star Ed OBannon successfully sued the NCAA for keeping college players from selling their marketing rights.

LAW AND ORDER

Armstrong cited in mishap

Disgraced cyclist Lance Armstrong hit two parked cars with an SUV after a night of partying in Aspen, Colorado, but agreed to let his longtime girlfriend take the blame to avoid national attention, police reports show. Police cited Armstrong with failing to report an accident and speeding weeks after the Dec. 28 accident, but only after his girlfriend, Anna Hansen, acknowledged lying for him. Police say Hansen and Armstrong left the scene before police arrived.

Raftery, Hill reunited

Bill Raftery called the regional final when Grant Hill led Duke to the 1994 Final Four. More than Hill led Duke to the 1994 Final Four. More than two decades later, Raftery and Hill are going back to the Final Four together. The popular veteran and the promising rookle are taking the place of the suspended Greg Anthony for the broadcasts of the NCAA semifinals and national championship game. Raftery and Hill work as analysts alongside play-by-play announcer Jim Nantz, CBS and Turner Sports said. Anthony was suspended after he was arrested in Washington on charges he solicited a prostitute.

Mountaineer apologizes

West Virginia forward Brandon Watkins issued an apology to Texas Tech and coach Tubby Smith for an obscene gesture. The sophomore made the gesture after fouling Texas Tech's Robert Turner in the 15th-ranked Mountainers' 77-58 win over the Red Raiders on Saturday. A brief skirmish ensued and Texas Tech center Norense Odiase was ejected. Watkins wasn't penalized further.

Bay beats Rocky River to keep pace in the WSC

BAY VILLAGE/ROCKY RIVER

By Ryan Kaczmarski

Bay senior Rex Sunahara put on a scoring clinic against visiting Rocky River on Jan. 30.

Sunahara scored from 3-point land, had two humongous slam dunks, scored from the charity stripe and took the game over in the second half, as he led the way for the Rockets – scoring 25 points – in the 66-55 win over the Pirates.

With the win, Bay keeps pace with Avon and Elyria Catholic, which each have an overall record of 10-5, and share a three-way lead in the West Shore Conference. The Eagles got past Lakewood, 80-71, Jan. 30 night, while the Panthers took down Vermil-

ion, 56-49

Sunahara went into halftime with just two field goals and two free throws made, and his team was down to the Pirates 31-25. But in the third quarter he went to work, draining three 3-point shots and three field goals, including a monster twohanded dunk with just over two minutes remaining in the quarter.

Rocky River's Éric Jones started off the third with a big 3-pointer, but the Rockets were awakened and would not be denied, taking a 49-42 lead into the fourth quarter.

Sunahara knocked down his fourth 3-pointer early in the fourth quarter and capped his night with another slam dunk for the ages. Three other Rockets finished the game with double-digit scoring, including Alec White with 12, Danny Heideloff with 12 and Brandon Morriss with 11. Junior John Koz had a field goal and two free throws, for four points and Jack Kyle chipped in with two.

Rocky River's Jack Corrigan gave the Pirates an early spark, hitting four 3-pointers in the first half, and managing to score 20 for the game. Sutton Klodnick hit a 3-pointer and added four field goals and two free throws to score 13 for the Pirates, followed by Nate Seffernick with seven, Patrick Connors with six, Jimmy Kinsley with four, Evan Nugent with three and Zach Waite with two.

Bay continues through the WSC schedule on Feb. 6 at Vermilion, while Rocky River travels to Midview the same night. Both varsity games are scheduled how his team responded. "We knew they were going "We knew they were going to come out and give us all we wanted," Plannery said. "Anyone who knows or watches baskethall knew they were going to come in fired up, and they did. Their guys came out and made a ton of plays and really made us work hard, but I love the way our responded and did what was needed to get the win." St. I gnatius found itself down eight points early in the second quarter, but a 10-0 run enabled the Wildcats to take a four-point lead into the half.

While Friday's victory proved much more difficult, Eagles coach Eric Flannery said he really liked

NHL roundup Jackets gorge on goals, win

Nick Foligno set a career high with his 19th and 20th goals of the season and also had an assist to lead the Blue Jackets past the St. Louis Blues 7-1 or past the St. Louis Blues 7-1 on Friday night in Columbus. The defeat ended the Blues' seven-game winning streak and franchise-record 13-game points streak and broke the Blue Jackets' three-game los-

Rvan Johansen scored his first NHL short-handed goal Corey Tropp tallied for the first time in 66 games and Cam At-kinson, Matt Calvert and Scott Hartnell also scored for Colums. Curtis McElhinney had 32 saves.

The Blues pulled Brian Elliott after he gave up four goals on 14 shots. Jake Allen surrendering three on 19 shots.

Blackhawks 2, Jets 1, OT: Brandon Saad scored in over-time to lift Chicago over host Winnipeg. Patrick Kane also scored for the Blackhawks, while Corey Crawford made 20 saves, Mark Scheifele scored for saves. Mark Scheifele scored for the Jets. Winnipeg announced before the game that Evander Kane, a healthy scratch in Van-couver on Tuesday night, will undergo left shoulder surgery and be out four to six months.

Devils 4, Maple Leafs 1: Patrik Elias scored his 400th career goal and host New Jersey sent Toronto to a franchise-record I'th straight loss. Cory Schnei-der had 33 saves, giving up a hird-period power-play goal to Tyler Bozak. Tuomo Ruutu, Steve Bernier and Jaromir Jagr also scored as the streaking Devils won their third straight. The Maple Leafs' skid breaks the old mark set by the 1966-67 team. That group rebounded with a 10-game unbeaten streak and later won the Stanley Cup. Devils 4. Maple Leafs 1: Patrik Capitals 3. Ducks 2. SO: Evgeny Kuznetsov and Nick-las Backstrom scored shoot-out goals, Philipp Grubauer stopped 23 shots in his first NHL action of the season and host Washington defeated Ana-heim. Jason Chimera had a goal and an assist in regulation for Washington. John Carlson gave Washington a 2-1 lead at 10:44 of the third period, but Corey Perry tied it with 6:15 left.

Lundqvist out 3 weeks: Rangers goaltender Henrik Lundqvist will miss at least three weeks with a vascular injury he sustained last Saturday, the team announced Friday afternoon. Lundqvist took a puck to the throat and had difficults breathing, headaches and light headedness

Monsters Smith's OT goal beats Toronto

Staff reports

Colin Smith scored a game-

Colin Smith scored a game-winning goal 5:04 minutes into overtime to complete a rally by the Lake Erie Monsters and beat the Toronto Marlies, 4-3, on Friday night in front of 9,272 fans at The Q. The Monsters forced the overtime with a little more than minute left in regulation as Andrew Agozzino scored his 13th of the season with help from Mitchell Heard and Kenny Ryan.

Ryan.

Calvin Pickard stopped 26 shots for Lake Erie and even tallied an assist on Smith's game winner.

Lake Erie's Ben Street scored the first goal of the game at 13:37 of the first period, as-sisted by Ryan and Agozzino. The Marlies' scored two unanswered goals to make the score 2-1 at the end of the second. Toronto added another at 4:19 of the third.

of the third.

But with the Marlies' Jamie Devane in the box for highsticking, Heard scored his sixth of the year to start the rally.

The Monsters, already without All-Star defenseman Stefan Elliott, who made his season debut with the Colorado Avalanche on Thursday, lost another defenseman to the Avs on Friday when Karl Stollery was called up.

Elyria Catholic's James Tirbaso, left, blocks the shot of Lakewood's Desmond Rollins during a loss to the Rangers on Friday.

Different story for EC in a loss to WSC rival

ELYRIA—What a difference a month makes. After scoring 35 first-quarter points, Elyria Catholic breezed past Lakewood, 103-73, in West Shore Conference play on the Rangers court Jan. 13.

It was a different story in the rematch Friday night in ECs Coliseum.

With senior guard Nick Porter scoring a career-high 33 points, the Rangers pulled away night in ECs Coliseum.

With senior guard Nick Porter scoring a career-high 33 points, the Rangers pulled away scloser than the score might suggest. Elyria Catholic trailed for chunks of time throughout, including by 10 points in the second quarter and again with just over five minutes left in the game. But the Panthers wouldn't go away, They went on a late 13-5 tear, during which junior guard Jacob Kuchta nailed three scoring which junior guard Jacob Kuchta nailed which scoring which junior guard Jacob Kuchta nailed which scoring which junior guard Jacob Ku

Bay bounced back with a 7-3 run, sparked by two quick field goals from Brandon Morriss, who also finished with a double-double— 13 points and tied for a game-high 14 rebounds.

The Rockets looked like they were going to use the ejection as fire to propel them to victory, but the offense fell flat after it took a 56-51 lead. Torbert connected on a jumper and Orr followed with a huge three at the 1-42 mark to the teg game at 56.

ROCKY RIVER — North Ridgeville coach Bryan Morgan was seeing red after Friday's 59-41 West Shore Conference loss to Rocky River, and it had nothing to do with it being Valentine's Day weekend.

It was the Rangers' performance that clouded Morgan's vision. His team turned the ball over 22 times, shot a paltry 38 percent (9-of-24) from the free throw line and only scored 15 points in the second and third periods, while falling to 9-11 and 5-8 in the WSC with two regular-season games remain-out of bounds."

After watching his team go through a 16-minute stretch where they only scored 15 points, Morgan pulled all of his starters with 5:45 remaining and allowed his bench players to finish the game. The Rangers' reserves briefly provided a spark, cutting the deficit to 12, but Morgan was also hoping they would ignite a fire in the locker room and on the practice court.

"We've had a lot of injuries over the course of the season and therefore there really has been no competition for spots in the lineup," he said. "Tonight, we saw that maybe there is some competition waiting in the wings. That's what has to happen. Guys can't get comfortable."

Rocky River (8-12, 3-10) played solid defense and forced the Rangers into numerous mistakes in their half-court game but Pirates coach Michael Murray was left wishing that his team, which committed 21 turnovers of its own, could to a better job turning turnovers into points.

"We defended and rebounded well but we got careless at times and wound up with over 20 turnovers," Murray said.

Rocky River never trailed and the score was only tied once, 11-11, after an Arnold 3-pointer with 40 seconds left in the first period.

Needing a win to ensure at least a share win over Lakewood earlier in the night of the final WSC crown, the Panthers started flat against Rocky River and fell behind by as many as 17 early in the fourth quarter. They rallied to cut it to six, but got no closer as the Pirates won 62-49.

Twenty minutes later and seven miles away at Bay, though, North Ridgeville finished off an upset overtime win over the Rockets, meaning the Panthers would share the league championship with the Rockets. It's EC's first league crown of any kind since 2002.

Midview made it a three-way tie, as its

EC (14-7, 9-5 WSC) needed help even to be in a position where help helped them: When Lakewood was forced to forfeit last Friday's win over the Panthers, EC moved into a tie with Bay, meaning if Bay lost, an EC win could have given it the outright championship.

But early on against the Pirates on Friday, it was clear a win was going to be a difficult proposition. The Panthers had seven turnovers in the first four minutes of the game — and 22 total — and trailed 18-8 after one thanks to three 3-pointers by River's Patrick Connors. Tirbaso scored six early in the second before going to the bench with his second foul, and EC managed to cut it to five at half, 29-24.

But after Tirbaso cut the lead to three with a bucket to open the second half, the Pirates rolled off 13 straight — including eight straight at one point by Evan Nugent — to blow it 4-10 in the league (and is 9-11 open. After River scored the first four of the fourth - with two of EC's eight missed free throws mixed in — the Pirates had their biggest lead, 48-31, with 6:30 left.

Yet the Panthers made a run, scoring 10 in a row: Jacob Kuchta made two free throws and back-to-back threes, and Ceeven Shelton added a bucket to make it 48-41. Nugent made a pair of free throws, and after a charge on Shelton that the EC bench loathed, Connors increased it back to 11, 52-41. Shelton, though, converted a three-point play and Colden Schemmel cut it to six.

EC got no closer. River scored nine of the next 10 to ice it.

"The conference was very tough — a three-way tie or a four-way tie is a very fitting for this conference," EC coach Phil Kuchta said. "There was a lot of good teams. We beat Bay twice, Midview beat us twice — it's a credit to every team in the league."

Indeed: River, which finished

"The depth of the league, top to bottom, is incredible," River coach Mike Murray said. "We've played close games, and lost close ones, but lately we've been playing better and playing confidence. I think we showed that tonight."

Todd ShapiroThe Chronicle-Telegram

ROCKY RIVER — Brookside's shooters were cold as ice in the second half of Tuesday's Division II sectional tournament game. And just like the Cardinals in the sky, the Cardinals of the basketball court find it difficult to survive with their habitat frozen over.

Brookside went more than 10 minutes of the second half with just one field goal, allowing Rocky River to build a lead of as many as 18 points on its way to a 57-43 win.

The No. 8 seed Pirates traded baskets with ninth-seeded Brookside for most of the first half, eventually building a 28-23 halftime lead.

In the second half Rocky River kicked its defense into another gear, holding Brookside to just five third-quarter points. The Cardinals made only six field goals in the second half.

"We mixed up our defenses and rebounded well in the second half," Rocky River coach Michael Murray said. "Brookside's shooters were hitting their shots in the first half so we knew we had to match up in our zone and do a better job of working through screens. Those two things plus the fact we pressured well, especially in the half-court, allowed us to extend the lead."

Seniors Cameron Drew and Brandon Harcula combined for more than half of the Cardinals offense. Drew had 12 of his 14 points in the first half. Harcula took over in the second half, scoring all of his game-high 15 points. Harcula had three 3-pointers.

Junior Jack Corrigan led the Pirates with 14 points.

"We've been working on moving the ball and pushing it up the court to get layups and fast breaks and that worked for us tonight," Corrigan said.

The Cardinals ended the season with an 8-15 record, while the Pirates improved to 10-12 heading into Friday's sectional final at Bay. Rocky River and Bay split a pair of West Shore Conference games in the regular season.

Brookside never led in the game. The Cardinals cut the Rocky River lead to four early in the third quarter on a 3-pointer from Harcula and had back-to-back possessions where they could have reduced the deficit to two, or possibly one, but came away empty-handed.

"That could have changed everything right there if we would have made one of those shots," Brookside coach Brent Schremp said. "I thought they controlled the first half. We were happy to be down only five, if we could have just got that one more score to really make the game tight it might have changed the momentum in our favor.

"We played hard and competed all night. There was no problem with our effort. We just had a string of wasted possessions there in the third quarter and we didn't execute well enough at times when we had to. That third quarter put us in a position where it was an uphill battle and we just couldn't get there."

Holding Brookside to just five points in the third quarter. Rocky River came a big win on March 3 in the first round of the boys state tournament, 57-43, and will travel to play arch-vibal Boys and March 6. Looking for a formula to separate his team from Brookside's, Rocky River coach Michael Murray had his team bring the pressure in the third as the Pirates outscored the Cardinals, 15-5, to back Brookside into a corner for the fourth quarter.

"We were able to get some stops and get out on the break, we got that spurt there in the middle of the first quarter, but then the game went back and forth for a while." Murray said. "The second half coming out, only giving up five points in the third quarter, that was big. We mixed up a couple defenses. I hought our kids rebounded the ball well and then we got some easier baskets, which helped us."

With the game in the balance before the third, Murray said it was a team effort to extend the lead and it all started with the defense.

"She's a great basketball player. But that team is a great basketball team. One threat, my to stop one, and then someone else steps up." Larrick said. "She's an excellent basketball player. She can attack the basket, pull up and nail the outside shots. She's so versatile." Sophia Forther stepped up for Wadsworth, scoring 10 points, and Aubrey Virgin scored sevent. Avon's Sierra Davidson and Catie Kelly each tied for a team-high five points. It was a memorable season for Avon, as it finished the year 18-7. The team was battle-tested to begin the year, starting off with a 5-5 record. Due to illnessess and injuries, the Eagles went through a carousel of starting lineups and rotations, which included 10 different starting lineups.

 2012-13 Elyria Catholic District final, Magnificat is one of the premier basketball programs in the area, however, Westlake has been playing great basketball. The Demons are on a 11-figure winning streak and have held their opponents under 40 points in each of those games. If Westlake can continue to play solid defense and their offense can produce, they will be in good shape.
- Ameen's pick: Westlake

High school boys basketball capsules

Staff Writer Stephanie Metzger will preview games involving area teams throughout the boys basketball tournaments.

Division II North Ridgeville Sectional finals Buckeye vs. Keystone

- · When: 7, March 6
- Where: Keystone High School, 580 Opportunity Way, LaGrange
- · For the record: Keystone is the No. 1 seed, but this match could go either way. Buckeye, the fifth seed, finished second in the PAC Stars Division behind the Wildcats. Buckeye also beat Keystone. 70-55, in their second meeting of the season. The first time the teams met, Keystone's defensive traps and pressure frustrated the Bucks to keep them off balance. The Wildcats will need to refer back to that game plan to secure a win.
 - Metzger's pick: Keystone Bay vs. Rocky River
 - When: 7, March 6
- Where: Bay High School, 29230 Wolf Road, Bay Village
- · For the record: The West Shore Conference lives on in the postseason. No. 8 seed Rocky River may not have finished the regular season with a share of the WSC title, but second-seeded Bay knows not to sleep on the Pirates. Rocky River played spoiler to Elyria Catholic, defeating the Panthers, 62-49, to prevent them from winning the WSC outright. River defeated Bay, 61-60, in their first meeting. The Rockets responded with a 66-55 win the second time around. The Rocky River defense has been sound, but the Pirates must find ways to contain Bay's big man, 6-foot-8 Rex Sunahara.

- Metzger's pick: Bay Division II Mansfield Sectional finals Perkins vs. Ontario
- When: 6:15, March 6
- Where: Madison High School, 600 Esley Lane, Mansfield
- For the record: First-seeded Ontario shouldn't have much trouble getting past 11th-seeded Perkins in this one. The Warriors have one loss and have something to prove after falling to Lexington in last year's sectional final. The Pirates have had a down year but sophomore Connor Roesch and senior Aleck Speer have pitched in, averaging 13.1 and 10.5 points per game respectively.
 - Metzger's pick: Ontario Norwalk vs. Shelby
 - · When: 8, March 6
- Where: Madison High School, 600 Esley Lane, Mansfield
- For the record: If Norwalk can start off strong and gain an early lead, the fifth-seeded Truckers may be able to sneak past the third-seeded Whippets. Shelby is a balanced squad with good scorers, but the Whippets have faltered in big games, falling twice to Ontario and Sandusky.
 - Metzger's pick: Shelby Sandusky vs. Galion
 - When: 6:15, March 6
- Where: Willard High School, 123 Whisler Drive, Willard
- For the record: Sandusky is the No. 2 seed and the Blue Streaks are riding the momentum of a successful regular season. Meanwhile, the seventh-seeded Tigers have had an up-and-down year. Stopping the Blue Streaks isn't easy, especially when you look at their depth. Jayrese Williams is Sandusky's main man, but the Blue Streaks can go 7-8 deep.

Metzger's pick: Sandusky Division III Ashland Sectional finals Huron vs. Western Reserve

- · When: 8, March 6
- Where: Oak Harbor High School, 11661 OH-163, Oak Harbor
- For the record: Secondseeded Huron rolled right through Northwood in the first round while 11th-seeded Western Reserve managed to fend off a late rally by Woodmore. Huron shouldn't have too much of an issue in this one, considering the Roughriders' defense has a pattern of inconsistency. That's bad news for Western Reserve, which will need to find some way to stop Tigers post man Nick Stauffer.
 - Metzger's pick: Huron Edison vs. Willard
 - · When: 8, March 6
- Where: Shelby High School, 1 Whippet Way, Shelby
- For the record: Edison, the No. 3 seed, has had a solid season with some statement wins, such as defeating state-ranked Huron. But fifth seed Willard has quietly proved it packs some punch with a win over a tough Shelby team, and a two-point loss to Ontario. Chargers junior Keegan Hall is tough to handle and tough to avoid as he's averaging 14.2 points and four steals per game.

Metzger's pick: Edison Division III Garfield Heights Sectional final Elyria Catholic vs. Columbia

- · When: 7, March 6
- Where: Elyria Catholic High School, 725 Gulf Road, Elyria
- For the record: Fourthseeded Elyria Catholic has a potential matchup with firstseeded VASJ on its radar, but the Panthers won't and should not take sixth-seeded Columbia lightly. The Panthers won, 86-62, during their regular season matchup, but the Raiders have proved they can score. Defending, however, will be key, as Elyria Catholic has outscored its opponents, 71.4-59.6, on average this season.
- Metzger's pick: Elyria Catholic

Division IV Barberton Sectional final Open Door vs. Cuyahoga Heights

- When: 7, March 6
- Where: Cuyahoga Heights High School, 4820 E. 71st St., Cleveland
- For the record: This one could easily go either way. The Patriots are riding the high of a comeback, overtime victory against Lake Ridge. The third-seeded Patriots have size on their side in seniors Danny Stintsman and Andrew Patterson and defense has been Open Door's strength. Second-seeded Cuyahoga Heights hasn't had an easy schedule, and the Redskins got the best of the Patriots earlier this year.
- Metzger's pick: Cuyahoga Hts.
 - Metzger's record: 10-2

Bay's defense carries them past Rocky River

Rockets hold off Pirates to move on in DII tourney

During their two regular season meetings, the Rocky River Pirates gave the Bay Rockets all they could handle as the two teams split the series. In Friday right's rubber match, nobody expected anything different as the longtime rivals met for a Division II sectional championship.

So when Rocky River's Jack Corrigan drilled a 3-pointer with two minutes left in the game, most fans at The Launch Pad were on the edge of their seats.

Clinging to a 51-47 lead, the Rockets managed to answer. They hit nine of 10 free throws down the stretch and came away with a 62-54 win over the Pirates that sent them to next week's district semifinals at North Ridgeville.

Bay, now 16-7, will face either Vermilion or Padua Thursday at 7 p.m. A win there would put the Rockets in the district championship game on Sat., March 14 at 4 p.m. at North Ridgeville High School.

Keystone and Holy Name play Wednesday night in the other semifinal game.

"In tournament basketball, anybody can make a run," said Bay head coach Jared Shetzer, whose team led the entire way.
"And they made some good runs at us.

"We got off to a great start, but you knew it was coming," Shetzer said. "They're a great defensive team. Coach Murray does a fantastic job with those kids. We knew they would come back.

"I give our kids credit, because they came back and answered the bell."

That great start had Shetzer's Rockets up 7-0 and pitching a shutout until Evan Nugent scored inside for the Pirates with 3:30 left in the first quarter. Bay led by 10, 12-2, but Rocky River bounced back to trail by only four, 13-9, heading into the second quarter.

"We didn't do anything any differently than we've done all year, except for the fact that we played defense for probably the first time in the two years I've been here," said Shetzer, whose team forced 18 Pirate tumovers on the night.

"If that's the way we're going to be defensively the rest of the way, we're going to be pretty tough to beat," Shetzer said.

Bay committed its fair share of turnovers, giving the ball up five times in the fourth quarter while trying to protect the lead.

"That's a product of having kids who are told to play fast all of the time," Shetzer said.

"You want them to play fast, then you're saying 'hey, slow down a second' and go possession by possession. Sometimes kids just want to make plays. I'd rather have kids who want to make plays than kids who are terrified to have

"It's a double-edged sword," he added,

After Koz, 6-8 senior Rex Sunahara contributed 11 points and eight rebounds despite picking up his fourth foul in the third quarter.

From there, no other Rocket reached double figures. Brandon Morriss had six points and six rebounds, while Jonathon Brajdic, Alec White, Scott Durham and Heideloff each scored five points. Durham, playing big minutes in Sunahara's absence, also had five rebounds.

For Rocky River, Jones led the way with 16 points, while Corrigan finished with 11 Points and 10 rebounds. Pat Connors added nine points as the Pirates concluded their season at 10-13.

"We did compete, and we were able to make some runs," Murray said.

In the second, River made another run and pulled to within a point, 16-15, on a steal for two by Sutton Klodnick. But the home team answered with a 10-1 run to close out the half. John Koz was a big part of that Rocket outburst, scoring six of his game-high 21 points in that stretch.

Bay held a 26-16 halftime lead, but the Pirates kept coming.

Rocky River pulled to within two points twice late in the third quarter, once on a 3-pointer from Eric Jones and the other on a driving jumper from Klodnick. But Koz came back with a pair of free throws and a 3-pointer in the quarter's final minute to give Bay a 40-33 lead heading into the fourth.

The Rockets led by as many as 12 points, 45-33, in that final quarter. River made one last run, with Corrigan's trey keeping the game in doubt. But moments later, Danny Heideloff hit both ends of a one-and-one to start Bay's game-clinching march to the free throw line.

For the game, the Rockets hit 26 of 31 free throw attempts. Rocky River, which shot just 38 percent from the floor on the night, made five of 13 attempts from the stripe.

"I had us for shooting 25 threes in the game, and they shot eight," said River head coach Michael Murray when asked about the free throw discrepancy.

"That's part of it. We were more perimeter-oriented than they were tonight," Murray continued. "They definitely benefited at the line. Maybe there were times where we could have gone to the line, but we didn't.

"We settled for a lot of jumpers, and that had a lot to do with it," he said.

Shetzer, on the other hand, felt his team's defense played a big part in the win.

"But there were times where we'd either settle for the long jumper, or didn't get back on defense to give them some easy baskets. When we stayed in front, they struggled. But then we gave them some easy layups.

"I bet we gave up 10 points on them throwing the ball ahead and getting open layups," he said.

When it was all said and done, it was all about execution, according to Murray.

"I'm proud of our kids' effort," Murray said. "Our effort was there, but our execution wasn't.

"We played OK on defense, but there were a lot of missed opportunities where they were handing the ball off, or a high screen where we didn't hedge, times when we didn't block out and couldn't get the rebound.

"For us to have a defensive game like that and have a poor shooting night, it's a recipe for not winning a game," he said.

Rockets defeat Rocky River for sectional crown

DIVISION II BOYS BASKETBALL

By Ryan Kaczmarski

In their third meeting of the season the Bay High School boys' varsity squad kept visiting Rocky River from mounting a second-half comeback and won the rubber-match, 62-54, for the Division II sectional championship Friday night before a capacity crowd at The Launching Pad.

"With tournament basketball, any-body can make a run," Bay head coach Jared Shetzer said. "Rocky River made a good run at us."

Bay came out strong offensively, scoring 13 points in each of the first two quarters, while holding Rocky River to nine and seven points, respectively.

But even with the 26-16 halftime lead, the Rockets had a lapse in defensive play which let the Pirates back into the game, as they cut Bay's lead to a mere seven points going into the fourth.

"We got off to a great start, but you knew they'd come back," Shetzer explained. "You have to just give our kids credit that we answered the bell.

"We didn't do anything different than we've done all year, except that we played defense – probably in the first time in Bay basketball history since I've been here for two years."

Bay's 6–8 center Rex Sunahara sat for much of the third quarter with foul trouble, but junior Scott Durham came off the bench and sparked the defense, while chipping in five key second-half points.

"Scott Durham – if you talk to him – is a pretty carefree kid, and plays that way sometimes, but tonight he was all business," Shetzer said. "Tonight, Scotty was the best version of himself, and he showed what he can do when he plays with some passion and intensity."

junior John Koz led the Rockets in scoring with 21 points, followed by Sunahara with 11, Brandon Moriss with six, and Jonathon Brajdic, Danny Heideloff, Alec White and Durham with five each. Bay senior Jack Kyle chipped in with four points.

After sitting most of the third, and the beginning of the fourth, Sunahara was sent to the foul line four times, and scored eight point to close out the game.

Bay (16-7) shot 31 foul shots in the game, compared to Rocky River's 13.

"We were fouling there at the end, so you could probably take out 10 of Bay's shots," Rocky River head coach Michael Murray said. "We were more perimeteroriented than they were tonight, but they also benefited at the line.

"We just settled for a lot of jumpers, and that had a lot to do with the final score." Rocky River (10-13) made seven 3point shots in the game, while Bay only had two.

Rocky River junior Eric Jones led the Pirates in scoring with 16 points, followed by Jack Corrigan with 11, Patrick Connors with nine, Sutton Klodnick with six, Evan Nugent with five, Zach Waite with four, Corey Zucker with two and Jimmy Kinsely with one.
