Hamlin wins pole at Bristol

From wire reports

Denny Hamlin, searching for anything to save his season, got a slight boost Friday with a polewinning run at Tennessee's Bristol Motor Speedway.

Hamlin turned a lap of 128.969 mph around the 0.533mile bullring to put his Toyota in the top starting spot for tonight's race. Although it's his fourth pole of the season, it's his first career pole at Bristol, where Hamlin is the defending race winner.

But he heads into the race in search of anything positive: He's $25 {\rm th}$ in points — largely because he missed four races with a fractured vertebra suffered in a crash in California - and entered Bristol stuck in a miserable nine-race slump in which he hasn't logged a finish higher than 18th.

Although he wants to win a race, he'll take any sort of minor victory

"It's by far the worst run, these nine races, in my career," he said. "A lot of it is our own doing. We got off track for a couple races because we've blown right-front tires in consecutive weeks, and we started changing our setups and we couldn't find anything that was very good with that. That burnt another three, four weeks. We've had horsepower cut back. But we're headed in the right direction.

"At any moment, we can go from a 25th-place car to winning a pole and winning the race. There's not a whole lot of teams that can say they can win at any moment, but I feel like we can."

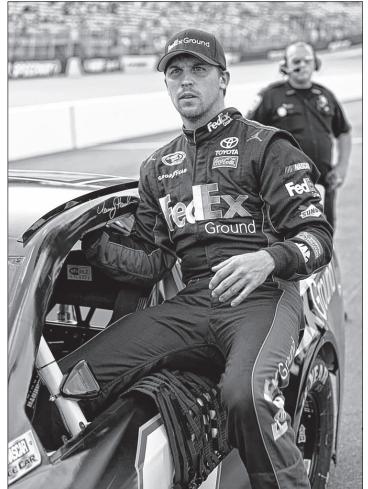

Hamlin's lap was good enough to hold off five-time Bristol winner Kurt Busch, who qualified second with a lap of 128.770. It's the seventh front-row starting spot of the season for Busch, who is suddenly a hot commodity on the free-agent market with an offer to join Stewart-Haas Racing next season.

Furniture Row Racing has made its offer to keep Busch, and the driver fired from Penske Racing at the end of 2011 now finds himself not only wading through multiple prospects but vying for a spot in the Chase for the Sprint Cup championship.

Although he's winless on the year, consistency has him ranked ninth in points with three races remaining to set the Chase field.

Carl Edwards qualified third in a Ford and was followed by Tovota drivers Brian Vickers and Matt Kenseth, as Toyota took three of the top five spots.

Childers joined MWR in 2009 after three years at Gillett Evernham Motorsports. He works with Mark Martin, Michael Waltrip and Brian Vickers as crew chief of the No. 55 and has three Sprint Cup victories. His most recent win was with Vickers last month at New Hampshire.

Harvick is joining SHR next vear.

Nationwide: Kyle Busch won the Nationwide Series race at Bristol for his ninth series win of the season.

Busch started from the pole Friday night and led 228 of the 250 laps en route to the 60th series win of his career. It made him two for two so far this week at Bristol, where he won Wednesday night's Truck Series race.

Brad Keselowski finished second and was followed by Austin Dillon and Justin Allgaier.

Kyle Larson was fifth, Trevor Bayne was sixth and was followed by Ty Dillon and Kasey Kahne.

Brian Scott and Elliott Sadler rounded out the top 10.

The three-time defending Formula One champion had to stop with about 20 minutes left. His right rear tire deflated and the loose rubber flapped around as he made his way back to the pits.

The German was earlier timed in 1 minute, 49.331 seconds. That was 0.059 seconds quicker than the time of Red Bull teammate Mark Webber and 0.818 faster than Lotus driver Romain Grosjean.

It wasn't immediately clear what caused Vettel's tire problems. But it could be unwelcome news for Pirelli, given the commotion surrounding its fastshredding tires this season.

Ohio State's speed on offense begins with quarterback Braxton Miller.

Twenty-eight teams, according to an analysis by www.Football-StudyHall.com, averaged at least 75 plays per game. Oregon, the team many fans think of when up-tempo college football offenses are mentioned, was ninth in the nation with 81.5 snaps per game.

Ohio State won't be Oregon. Ohio State will be faster than the usual Ohio State.

"We're must faster. We're much more well-oiled on our jet package and our up-tempo stuff," Herman said. "It's running a lot smoother, definitely."

That's because everyone gets it now. It's part of the greater understanding of the entire offense that exists for the 11 players on the field.

in front going," said quarterback Braxton Miller when asked for the key to the up-tempo offense. "Man, 300 pounds, you've got to keep them going each and every day.'

But a lot of it starts with Miller. He's the guy with his foot on the gas pedal.

"The quarterback helps," Herman said. "When he's going and leading the charge, it certainly helps. But all the other guys are certainly faster, and they're not thinking. They're just playing, which certainly helps."

of another eight plays, such as last I'd get the chance to get my body year, would get Ohio State to 78 per game.

Other numbers matter more, though, especially the number of defensive players on the field when the Buckeyes are moving auickly.

"Get 12 guys on the field on the defensive side [while they] sub in and out, and get a flag and get a big play," Miller said.

"You've got to get the big guys North of the border: Here is an Ohio State Buckeyes-Montreal Alouettes update. Trov Smith signed with Montreal on Aug. 14 and was asked if he was going to use the CFL as a steppingstone to get back to the NFL, Smith said he hadn't thought about the NFL for a while. And he said he took this chance only because the Alouettes promised him the opportunity to get back in football shape. They are in the midst of the CFL season, but Smith said he's basically gearing up to compete for the starting job next season.

"The only reason this came to from Smith.

for 90 snaps a game. But a jump fruition was because they told me back right," Smith said. "I'm not thinking about the NFL right now. The CFL is the most important thing to me."

While Smith didn't play in the Alouettes' 39-38 win over the B.C. Lions on Thursday night. another former Buckeye did. Receiver Duron Carter, son of OSU legend and NFL Hall of Famer Cris Carter, caught a 52-yard pass in his first game with the Alouettes.

Carter last played college football in 2009 as a freshman for Ohio State. Facing academic issues, he left for junior college, played there in 2010, then went to Alabama and then to Florida Atlantic without ever getting on the field.

He wasn't taken in the 2013 NFL Draft, and after brief tryouts with the Minnesota Vikings and New Orleans Saints, he landed in Montreal, where he made his first CFL catch on Thursday night.

BOYS SOCCER

By Joe Ostrica and Ryan Kaczmarski

The Bay High School boys soccer team has had much success in recent times, finishing at the top of the West Shore Conference with a record of 6-0-1 (14-5-3 overall) and going all the way to the 2012 Division II state semifinals.

The Rockets have 14 lettermen returning this year, and head coach Bobby Dougherty thinks this could be one of the best rosters in school history.

"We have very high expectations from this group of talented players," he said. "We need consistent play from our back line and goalkeeper to go deep into the playoffs this year."

The key returning starters include Dominic Ruma, Alex Furst, Alec White, Dan Linhart and Logan Schmit. Freshman Mitch Matakovich made the varsity squad as a center.

"We are a younger team with a great deal of experience," Dougherty said. "We have big shoes to fill with the loss of a very good senior class that led us to a WSC title, and district and regional championships."

After going 10-4-4 overall and 4-1-2 in the WSC with a youthful roster, the Avon High School boys soccer team is hoping the experience it gained last season will get the Eagles back on top of the league standings.

Avon head coach Chris Dore said he has high expectations for Will Sharer, Daniel Minotti, John DeMarco, Michael Smigel, Tony Telidis and Nick Mazzola.

"We always play to win every match," Dore said. "We are looking forward to a good year." The Lakewood High School team is coming off a season in which the Rangers went 5-1-1 in the WSC (9-5-2 overall).

The key returning players include Jameson Foran. David Kemp, Johnny Virag and Dino Papagianis. The top newcomers are sophomores Jafar Fadhel and Jarod Macaluso.

"We have great team depth and ability for a number of players to play multiple positions," head coach Andrew Toth said. "But our overall level of experience at the varsity level is a weakness, with a number of new players this year."

The Rocky River High School team is looking to improve from last year's WSC record of 3-4 (8-9-1 overall) and contend for a conference title.

The key returners for the Pirates are Sutton Klodnick, Trent Newby and Jacob Wischmeier.

"They bring a great deal of skill, experience and ability to the team," head coach Kevin Zerbey said. "They'll be the engine that makes the team go."

The North Ridgeville High School team hopes to see improvement over its 4-10-2 (2-4-1 in the WSC) record from 2012. Head coach Bryan Tinsley expects Bay, Elyria Catholic, Avon and Lakewood to be the tougher teams in the league this fall.

"After a difficult campaign last year, we are taking things one game at a time," Tinsley said. "Our basic goal every year is to be .500 or better."

Senior Matt Clark, a WSC and Lorain County first-team selection, is expected to be a key leader for the Rangers. Seniors Cameron Moore (WSC and Lorain County second team), Chad Kisel (WSC and Lorain County honorable mention), junior Alex George (WSC and Lorain County honorable mention), senior goalkeeper Matt Crow and junior Tristan Coffey are also players Tinsley will count on this fall.

"We have our largest squad to date with 41 players in the program," Tinsley said. "We also have our largest senior class, nine total, since I have been here. We return 12 letter winners. Currently we are going through a difficult time with multiple injuries."

KRISTEN BAUER / CHRONICLE

Panthers look powerful

Bob Daniels

The Chronicle-Telegram EATON TWP. — People are starting to wonder just how good Elyria Catholic is.

The undefeated, Division III Panthers routed Division I Midview, 8-1, Wednesday night in a West Shore Conference opener for both. EC (3-0-0, 1-0-0) has defeated its opponents by a combined 21 - 3.

When the Panthers also defeated Wellington, 8-1, last week, eight different players scored. On Wednesday night, their goals came off the feet of six different players.

While it's too early to be thinking seriously about tournament time, some people are. And some of them are aware that no Lorain County high school soccer team boys or girls — has ever won a regional championship and advanced to a Final Four.

Whether Elyria Catholic or anyone else will change that this season won't be known until late October. But some folks are starting to think the Panthers have as good a shot as anyone.

"I have the feeling they'll be view's three. oing deep into the playoffs they played the first 40 minutes, they played a much stronger second half, especially defensively. While they allowed the Middies five shots each half, they surrendered no shots on goal the second half.

"We didn't possess the ball well the first half, so I let the boys know we have to possess the ball to control a team," EC coach Attila Csiszar said. "Movement off ball was a little stale and transition was weak the first half. It's what you do off the ball, not what you do when you have the ball.

"So I told the boys at halftime it's work ethic. They have to bring their work ethic and they did the second half. Our can carry the ball," EC backs started to support our midfield. At the beginning of the match, we had a 20-yard gap between our defense and our midfielders, so we started pushing forward and that's when we gained success."

Meantime, in an indication of its assertiveness, EC forced 21 Midview goal kicks — the Panthers had to make just one — and earned nine corner kicks, while allowing the Middies only one. And they were whistled for 15 fouls to Mid-

Elvria Catholic got two goals

"We just have a good team this year and we work on finishing in training," O'Halloran said. "Not just the forwards finishing, we wanted everyone to be able to finish if they got the opportunity to put the game away."

The makeup of this EC team makes for interesting scrimmages during practice sessions — a very strong and diverse offense averaging seven goals a game, going against a strong defense that's allowed three goals in 240 minutes of play.

"We have strong outside backs and we like to work up with them and we know they defender Medves said. "We know that if we are on top of our game, we can defend any team out there. We have a strong core of defenders.

"It's really helpful that we have so much quality scoring. At practice, we can go against them, and if we can stop them, we believe we can stop any team out there. It's a really good matchup."

Two minutes later, North Olmsted's Stefan Spanu, on a near mirror image of the Becker play, had Lewis one-on-one — but Lewis made one of his six saves.

The Eagles' offense generated equally strong chances in the first half. In the 35th minute, Becker fired a rightfooted shot that Comets keeper Wes Lewis deflected away to his left. The Eagles put the rebound home, but the linesman's flag was up for an apparent offside.

were left watching when Becker never asked for 10 yards and struck quickly - hit the crossbar. Keegan Welch's rebound went wide to keep the score knotted.

"We were the better team," Marsh said, "but we just didn't anticipate and put the final pass together. Or, when we played a ball, guys weren't making the runs they should have been making to finish the play.

"I liked that we put pressure on them the entire match. I liked our intensity throughout. ... And I'm happy we found a way to keep the sheet clean."

Amherst, meanwhile, has dealt with injuries early on and subsequently is building from the back line out. On that, the Comets deserved an A for Wednesday's performance.

Goalie Josh Daugherty injured his pelvic bone just before the season, and center back Ben Higgins is out for the year with a broken arm.

Lewis has moved into the net, and freshman Colin O'Connor is now paired with captain Dalton Sweet as center backs. The Eagles unofficially registered six shots on goal.

Today in Sports history

In 1972, the United States men's basketball team lost its first game in Olympic competition. The Soviet Union wins 51-50 with the help of a controversial replay of the final 3 seconds, allowing the Soviets to score a last-second basket. The Americans protest in vain. The U.S. team later refuses to accept the silver medal.

Bach favored to lead IOC

The International Olympic Committee will elect a new president today to lead the committee into the next decade. Thomas Bach of Germany was the strong favorite among the field of six candidates vying to succeed Jacques Rogge, the 71-year-old Belgian who is stepping down after 12 years. Richard Carrion, a Puerto Rican banking executive who heads the IOC's finance commission, and vice president Ng Ser Miang of Singapore are also contenders.

FIGURE SKATING

again being delayed by injury. Lysacek was to compete later this week at the U.S. International Skating Classic, his first event since winning gold at the Vancouver Games. But he withdrew Monday, citing a slight abdominal tear. A similar injury forced him out of Skate America last year, and he eventually had sports hernia surgery. Lysacek has has missed three full seasons since beating rival Evgeni Plushenko in Vancouver. He is still entered for Skate America, which is Oct. 18-20 in Detroit.

SWIMMING

Nyad to address skeptics

Diana Nyad is planning to meet with members of the marathon swimming community who are skeptical about her 110-mile swim from Cuba to Florida. Since Nvad finished her swim last week. long-distance swimmers have been debating on social media whether the 64-year-old endurance athlete could have picked up as much speed as she says she did from the fast-moving Gulf Stream current. Nyad planned to meet Tuesday with "her peers in the swimming community," said Alexandra Crotin, one of Nyad's spokeswomen.

BASKETBALL

Nets retire Jason Kidd's No. 5

The Brooklyn Nets will retire the No. 5 jersey of Jason Kidd, who led the franchise to its greatest NBA success as a player and is now its coach. The Nets said Monday the ceremony will take place Oct. 17 before their preseason game against the Miami Heat. Kidd led the New Jersey Nets to the 2002 and 2003 NBA Finals. He ended his 19-year playing career after spending last season with the New York Knicks.

Rodman plans N. Korea games

Dennis Rodman is going back to North Korea, and taking a team of former NBA players with him. Days after returning from his second trip to visit Kim Jong Un, Rodman announced plans Monday to stage two exhibition games in North Korea in January. The first will be Jan. 8 - Kim's birthday - with another to follow two days later. "Why North Korea? It'll open doors," Rodman said. He hopes to have stars such as former Chicago teammate Scottie Pippen and Karl Malone.

Goalie Kiprusoff retires

Veteran goalie Miikka Kiprusoff, a native of Turku, Finland, announced his retirement on Monday after 12 NHL seasons, the last nine with the Calgary Flames. Kiprusoff, 36, who began his career with the San Jose Sharks, joined the Flames in 2003 and helped lead them to the Stanley Cup finals the following year. In 623 career regular-season games with Calgary and San Jose, he went 319-213-71 with a 2.49 GAA and .912 save percentage.

River remains unbeaten, tops Avon for shutout win

Story by Jim Horvath Photos and video by Larry Bennet

Unbeaten. Unscored upon.

Undaunted.

The Rocky River boys soccer team continued its hot start to the 2013 season Wednesday night in Avon. The Pirates played shutout defense, then got a late Trent Newby-to-Sutton Klodnick goal to come away with a 1-0 win over the Eagles at Avon Stadium.

With the win, Rocky River moved to 8-0-0 overall and 3-0 in the West Shore Conference. And in eight games, the Pirates and goalie Dominic Liva have yet to allow a goal.

Avon fell to 5-2-1 and 2-1 in the WSC after allowing the game's only goal with 10:24 remaining in the contest.

After an Avon foul, Pirate junior Trent Newby lined up the ball from 50 yards out. He sent a high liner toward the right post, where sophomore teammate Sutton Klodnick was waiting. Klodnick went up and headed the ball under the arm of Avon's senior goalie, Ian Long, and just inside the post for a 1-0 River lead.

"Yeah, we've done that before," said Newby with a smile after the game. "We practice those all the time, so that's a planned goal that we do.

"I saw the ball coming toward me, and I was just hoping the keeper wasn't going to come and hit me in the back," Klodnick said. "It was a perfect ball in. I was able to head it in down low and it went between the post and him. I think it hit his arm, but it was already in. "We were coming in here against a very strong Avon team, but we knew we could pull it off," Newby said. "We have confidence in our team. We weren't going to let this being an away game throw us off at all.

"It felt like this was our home away from home tonight," he added.

The Pirates played like they were at home most of the night as they outshot their hosts 10-7 and decisively won the 50-50 battles for loose balls.

"Almost every game, we're talking about winning the 50-50 balls, about getting to the ball first" said River head coach Kevin Zerbey. "Because obviously, in soccer you can't do anything unless you have the ball.

"That's something we really work on, and that shows in our games. Our guys want to get to the ball first, have fun with it and put it in the net. They care, they want to get to the ball," he said.

Avon did produce five corner kicks, but Liva stepped up with aggressive play in the crease to go along with four saves.

One of those Eagle corners came in the 64th minute with the game still scoreless. Junior Michael Smigel sent the ball to within five yards of the goal, but Liva went high to knock away an Avon header to keep the home team off the board.

With River up 1-0, the Eagles had two more opportunities in the 73rd minute. Their first shot was slightly deflected, sending it high over the goal. On the ensuing corner kick, a low shot rolled wide left, keeping the River scoreless streak intact.

"I told the guys before the game that this was going to be our toughest test yet," said Zerbey, whose team already has wins against Westlake and Chagrin Falls this season.

"In our previous games, we've had a whole bunch of shots. Not all of them were on target, but we had lots and lots of opportunities. Tonight, not so many. But out guys kept working together and passed the test together."

Zerbey felt that was a big key to his team's unbeaten streak: playing together.

"Last year, this was not a together bunch. This year, we're not done jelling, but we're way better in that part of our game than we were at the end of last year.

"We'll continue to build, because now we have a big target on our backs. Monday, we host Notre Dame-Cathedral Latin, and they beat us 6-1 last year at their place. It's the longest trip you can take going out there, so it was a long bus ride home.

"Our guys are going to be very motivated to beat them and put that memory to bed," he said.

Outside the Avon locker room, Eagles head coach Chris Dore said his team's performance was less than what he was expecting.

"No. Not even close," Dore said. "We're nowhere near where we want to be at this point in the season. Tonight showed that.

"The big thing for our players is to be more mentally focused for a game that two teams have to battle for. I realize we're going to get better, then we're going to take steps backwards during the course of the year. Tonight we took steps backwards.

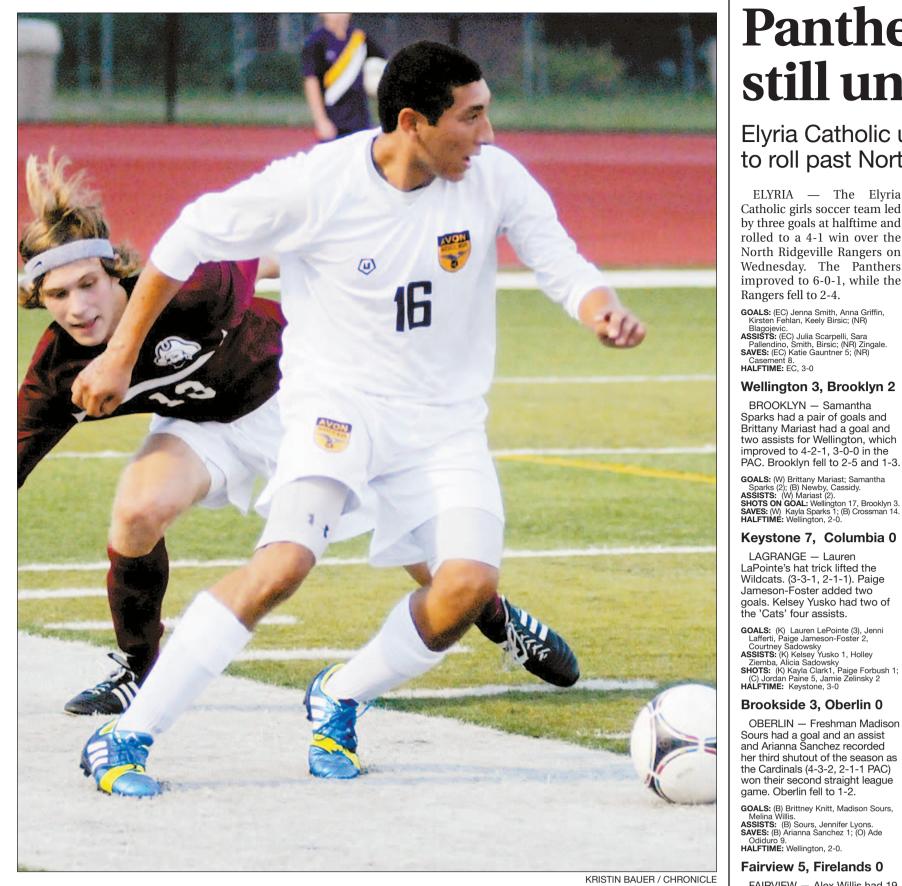

"Now we basically have to start over," he added.

AVON — How do you score against a team that has not allowed a goal all season? Avon found out Wednesday the answer is you don't.

Rocky River recorded its eighth shutout of the year and scored the game's only goal on a header by Sutton Klodnick in the 70th minute to defeat the Eagles 1-0 in a West Shore Conference match.

After a sluggish first half in which both teams spent much of their time playing keep away in the middle of the field, Avon (5-2-1, 2-1 WSC) had a number of close calls during the first 20 minutes of the second half, but was unable to get anything past Pirates goalkeeper Dominic Liva.

Eagles junior defender Michael Smigel had a shot on goal off of a free kick in the 50th minute, then twice in a three-minute span midway through the half Smigel set up Will Sharer for headers — once on a corner kick and then on another free kick near midfield — but Sharer was unable to get anything past Liva.

Rocky River (8-0, 2-0) finally broke through on a set piece when Trent Newby lined up to take a free kick on the near side of the field, 40 yards away from the goal where Klodnick was able to run under and direct opponents 22-0.

"We practice that all the time with myself going back door on those restarts, and I was able to sneak behind and I got a good run on it and flicked it in," said Klodnick of his team-leading sixth goal of the season.

The Pirates had a good scoring chance just two minutes earlier, but Eagles midfielder Nick Mazzola was perfectly positioned on the near post to deflect away a shot by Noah Lorincz-Comi that was out of the reach of Avon goalkeeper Ian Long, who finished with eight saves.

Although the Eagles came into the game on a six-match unbeaten streak and have outscored their opponents 17-6, coach Chris Dore felt his team didn't bring the intensity needed to win in the WSC.

"We did what we needed to do in training, but we have to come focused and ready to play and I didn't see that tonight," Dore said. "Maybe if we played a little better, we get a tie or maybe we win. But more than the result I'm concerned with how the result comes, and we weren't even close to where we needed to be tonight."

After starting the season with eight straight shutouts, Rocky River is tied for seventh all time in Ohio for consecutive he delivered a perfect kick to the far post that shutouts. The Pirates have outscored their

Then freshman Elion Bendo shocked them when he tied the score at 1 with a goal in the 54th minute.

It came as the second shot in Bendo was there to control the rebound and score on a play Firelands keeper Bryce Bartolotta could do nothing about. The whole scene was which Fariview (5-3, 2-2) sen- defense limited the Warriors to tolotta said he was uneasy when Fairview came on strong in the second half.

"They got some breakaways and I thought they might get a lot more shots," Bartolotta said. "But our defense held them."

As for the PK, Yorks said he never knows where he will try to place one until he steps up to the ball. Hitting it lower right, he said, is probably the easiest shot to take.

"There are less variables," he said. "The keeper's not keyed to one side, so it's pretty much you're going to go for whatever's easiest. That's what's easiest for me."

Firelands coach Kennie Searight was happy with the outcome.

"Right now, we're the only team that's undefeated on the Stars (Division) side," he said. "Basically, we have at least a tough schedule, so knew this would be a tight game," Pirates coach Kevin Zerbey said. "My goalkeeper had two fantastic reaction saves tonight and the defense played well again. I know we're not going to go all season undefeated with nobody scoring against us. I just want to see us progressing, learning and preparing for the playoffs." Klodnick, a junior, said Rocky River had been looking forward to its return visit to Avon all offseason after losing 3-1 to the Eagles on their home turf during his freshman year.

"This is a great environment for soccer here in Avon. We wanted to win here so badly," Klodnick said. "Avon, Elyria Catholic and Bay are the three games that we have been aiming for all season. We got one tonight and once we get all three, we'll have the West Shore Conference."

"To be honest, this is the hallmark of our year," Searight said. "I know that we've had a high-scoring offense and a lot of people talk about our offense. IMG names PR director

John Carroll University grad Mike Scanlan was named director of public relations and communications for IMG Golf North America. Scanlan, who began his career in sports as a graduate assistant with the Buffalo Bills in 2006, will relocate to Cleveland with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Caroline. He joins IMG following a seven-year stint in public relations at the LPGA. IMG, a global sports, fashion and media company that was founded and has offices in Cleveland, is headquartered in New York.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL Husker coach apologizes

Hours after Bo Pelini fired back at criticism from one of the Nebraska program's all-time greats, he had to apologize for a profane rant in which he criticized "fair-weather" Cornhuskers fans. The sports website Deadspin.com on Monday posted the 2-year-old audio of the Cornhuskers' coach going off on fans and newspaper reporters. On Saturday, UCLA wiped out an 18-point deficit in Lincoln and beat Nebraska 41-21. The Deadspin audio caught Pelini speaking off air before his postgame radio interview following Nebraska's win over Ohio State in October 2011. "I want to sincerely apologize for my comments from two years ago which became public today," Pelini said in a statement. "I take full responsibility for these comments. They were spoken in a private room following the Ohio State game. I was venting following a series of emotional events which led to this moment. That being said, these comments are in no way indicative of my true feelings. I love it here in Nebraska and feel fortunate to be associated with such a great university and fan base." Earlier, during his weekly news conference, Pelini responded to criticism from former Huskers quarterback Tommie Frazier, saying if Frazier doesn't like how he's running the program, he doesn't need his support.

Pac-12 officials erred

Wisconsin is trying to move past an excruciating and bizarre loss, and focus on its Big Ten opener against Purdue. The No. 24 Badgers (2-1) lost 32-30 to Arizona State when officials erred in allowing the clock to expire, denying the Badgers the opportunity to attempt a possible game-winning field goal. The Pac-12 issued a statement Monday acknowledging the errors by its officiating crew, saying it has "reprimanded and taken additional sanctions against officials" in their handling of the final seconds. "To us, it doesn't matter. It's probably the PC (politically correct) thing to do and something they had to do," said Wisconsin linebacker Chris Borland. "But, we don't care about that. We lost the game, so that's all we care about."

Former top-10 player Marin Cilic has been suspended nine months for a doping violation. The International Tennis Federation said Monday that the suspension was back-dated to May 1, so Cilic will be able to return to the circuit Jan. 31. Cilic tested positive for nikethamide, a stimulant, in Munich. The ITF says an independent tribunal found that Cilic ingested the stimulant inadvertently while taking glucose tablets "and did not intend to enhance his performance in doing so." The 24-year-old from Croatia has not played since withdrawing from his second-round match at Wimbledon in June. Cilic is ranked 24th.

BOXING

Judge will take time off A veteran Nevada boxing judge who drew widespread criticism after scoring a weekend title fight between Floyd Mayweather Jr. and Saul "Canelo" Alvarez a draw is giving up her ringside job, at least temporarily.

"I'm taking time away," said Cynthia C.J. Ross on Wednesday in a brief telephone interview from her home outside Las Vegas.

The 64-year-old Ross said she won't judge any fights "in the immediate future" and hadn't made a decision whether to quit.

Ross scored the world 152-pound title fight a 114-114 draw on Saturday night, but Mayweather won a majority decision after two other judges scored him the clear winner.

NHL Blue Jackets send five down

The Columbus Blue Jackets have returned five prospects to their respective junior clubs in the Canadian Hockey League.

Sent out from the team's training camp were: forwards Oliver Bjorkstrand (Portland, WHL), Josh Anderson (London, OHL) and Nick Moutrey (Saginaw, OHL); defenseman Dillon Heatherington (Swift Current, WHL) and goalie Oscar Dansk (Erie, OHL);

Columbus' training camp roster now stands at 51 players after three exhibition games.

SOCCER Manchester United loaded

Manchester United is projecting it will generate more than $680 million this season after breaking its revenue record while winning a 20th English title.

United pointed to the enduring success of its commercial operation in helping to maintain the club as a force on and off the pitch, as it faces the challenge of David Moyes replacing Alex Ferguson after more than 26 years as manager.

Owned by the American-based Glazer family, United reported revenue rising by 13 percent to $578 million in the year to June 30.

TENNIS

Tsonga, Querrey advance Defending champion Jo-Wilfried Tsonga and American Sam Querrey advanced to the quarterfinals of the Moselle Open in Metz, France.

Tsonga defeated fellow Frenchman Edouard Roger-Vasselin, 6-3, 6-4, and Querrey moved on when wild card Paul-Henri Mathieu retired with a right thigh injury while trailing, 6-2.

WRESTLING American wins world title

American Jordan Burroughs has earned another wrestling world title.

The Record

NFL

AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Today in Sports history

In 2006, Washington's Mark Brunell broke the NFL record for most consecutive passes completed in a single game when he connected on his first 22 throws in a 31-15 win over the Houston Texans.

SAILING

Oracle wins again Skipper Jimmy Spithill accelerated his 72-foot catamaran off the starting line and steered defending champion Oracle Team USA to its fifth straight win against Emirates Team New Zealand on Monday to stay alive in the America's Cup. The 34-year-old Spithill and his brain trust of Olympic gold medalists - British tactician Ben Ainslie and Australian strategist Tom Slingsby - kept the American-backed boat ahead the whole way around the five-leg course on San Francisco Bay for a 33-second victory. Oracle's remarkable comeback from what seemed like certain defeat has closed the Kiwis' lead to 8-6.

NBA

Jerseys may get nicknames At least for one game, King James, Jesus Shut-

tlesworth, The Truth and KG may be headed to the backs of NBA jerseys. Some members of the Miami Heat have been told the NBA is considering having them and the Brooklyn Nets wear "nickname jerseys" in at least one of their four matchups this season. The NBA has not announced the plan, but teams apparently have been aware of the likelihood of it happening for at least several weeks. "It shows growth in our league and it shows we do adapt to what's going on around us," said Ray Allen, the Heat guard who plans to wear Shuttlesworth on his jersey, a nod to his character from the "He Got Game" film.

Pacers try to sign George

Paul George has no intention of leaving the Pacers. Larry Bird is spending most of his time these days trying to make sure Indiana's budding star sticks around for the next few years. "We're talking, but we've got a ways to go," Bird said. George, Bird's first-round pick in 2010, averaged 17.4 points, 7.6 rebounds and 4.1 assists during the regular season while emerging as one of the league's top defenders.

Shaq buys piece of Kings

The larger-than-life figure who teased and tormented the Sacramento Kings for so long is now the biggest name to join the franchise's new ownership group. Shaquille O'Neal, a former Cav, now 41, has worked as an analyst for TNT the last two seasons.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Combs leaving Kansas

Kansas defensive tackle Marquel Combs, who was rated among the best junior college prospects in the nation last year, intends to transfer after being released from his scholarship. Combs failed to break into the Jayhawks' starting lineup after arriving this season from Pierce

Statement questioned

Coach Paul Johnson said Georgia Tech players who joined a show of solidarity for NCAA reform should have first given all players on the team a chance to vote on the idea. Johnson said coaches and most players had no idea quarterback Vad Lee, linebacker Jeremiah Attaochu and a few other players were carrying the letters APU – for All Players United – on wristbands in Saturday's 28-20 win over North Carolina. Johnson says he first learned of the message after the game.

NASCAR Decision near on race

A May road race at Indianapolis could become reality as early as next week. With time running short to finish the 2014 schedule, Mark Miles, CEO of IndyCar's parent company, Hulman & Co., said he expects the board to vote before the end of September. Series officials are hoping to release next season's schedule before this season's final race, Oct. 19 at Fontana, Calif.

NHL

Leafs sign Raymond The Toronto Maple Leafs have signed left wing Mason Raymond to a $1 million, one-year contract. The 28-year-old Raymond had 10 goals and 12 assists in 46 games for Vancouver last season.

Hoyer gets text from Bernie, then QB reins Sunday

Scott Petrak

The Chronicle-Telegram BEREA - Brian Hoyer read the text message and turned into an 8-year-old.

"You look down at your phone and it says, 'Hey, this is Bernie Kosar,'" Hoyer said Wednesday. "To me, when I used to wear the jersey in the backyard to now getting a message from him is pretty cool."

Hoyer will have another memorable experience Sunday against the Bengals. For the second straight week, coach Rob Chudzinski announced Hoyer will start and Brandon Weeden has

Hoyer been ruled out with a sprained right thumb. Hoyer won his Browns debut in Minnesota in thrilling fashion. Start No. 2 will be on the lakefront, just minutes from where he grew up in North Olmsted and practiced for St. Ignatius. "Sure, it means a lot," he said. "I think this is the part when you guys ask me, 'Does it mean more?' Obviously, playing at home with the Cleveland fan base here, it's going to be special. But once they kick that ball off and you're between those white lines, that's what you've got to worry about and then maybe after the game you can sit back and think about it.

"It will be awesome. Our fans are great. They'll be quiet for us and loud for them, so it's defi-

CLEVELAND — The Indians wrapped up the home portion of their regular-season schedule Wednesday night with a 7-2 victory over the White Sox.

It's up to them whether they've played their final game of 2013 at Progressive Field.

Cleveland embarks on a four-game series in Minnesota that begins tonight with the Indians owning a one-game lead over the Rangers for the American at cona, whose team won its sixth home, winning straight game and for the 11th all six games of time in its last 13 games. "It's very exciting to go play games that are this meaningful. This is as good as it gets."

"They're must-wins until they're proved otherwise," said second baseman Jason Kipnis of the trip to Minnesota. "That's the way we want to approach it. We have four games left. When you decide your own destiny, you just want to go handle it. The easiest way is to win all four. If we take care of business, we'll like where we end up."

nitely an advantage.

Kosar is a Browns legend after growing up in Youngstown, manipulating the system to play for the hometown team and leading three trips to AFC championship games as quarterback. He is the icon for football-loving kids born from Toledo to Warren from 1970-85.

Hoyer was one of those kids, attending games with his dad. Axel, who had season tickets at the old Cleveland Stadium.

"They were behind one of the posts," Hoyer said. "It was kind of hard to see. I just remember trying to look around the post and seeing if Eric Metcalf made it up the middle.'

Hoyer remembers the tall, awkward sidearmer, even though he was only 8 when Kosar was cut by coach Bill Belichick in 1993.

"Every game my dad and I would go, so I know I saw him play a bunch," he said.

Fast-forward 20 years, and Hoyer has already done more in the NFL than most expected when he went undrafted out of Michigan State in 2009. After three years as Tom Brady's backup in New England and then being cut by three teams in nine months, he's making consecutive starts and getting a lot of publicity nationwide.

"It was a pretty cool experience to come back and look at your phone and see the guys who had texted you congratulations," Hoyer said. "It's cool to see how many people are happy for you, but for me, I really don't follow the media.

BOYS SOCCER: ROCKY RIVER 2. ELYRIA CATHOLIC 1

STEVE MANHEIM / CHRONICLE

Elyria Catholic's Patrick Orsagos, right, tries to find some breathing room against Rocky River's Trent Newby as they go for the ball Wednesday at K of C Field.

EC's sluggish start costly against state's No. 8 team

Bob Daniels The Chronicle-Telegram

ELYRIA — Even after a slow start against a fast team, Elyria Catholic nearly pulled off a big West Shore Conference win Wednesday night. Unfortunately, from an EC point of view, the operative word is "nearly."

In a battle of state-ranked teams, Rocky River scored in the second minute then held on for a 2-1 victory at Knights of Columbus Field.

The Pirates' swift defenders allowed the Panthers just four shots on goal. EC's goal came on a penalty kick.

River coach Kevin Zerbey loved the Pirates' early goal.

"That was better than I could have hoped for," Zerbey said. "I've seen the scores and I know how good Elyria Catholic is. I don't know what Attila (EC coach Csiszar) is going to say, but it seemed to me it took them five or 10 minutes to get going. We got that goal in the first two minutes, and that was key.'

Csiszar agreed. He said he thought the Panthers were lackadaisical the first 40 minutes.

"We weren't pressuring and they were beating us to every 50-50 ball," he said.

"In the second half, we adjusted and came out strong. We transitioned a little bit and started to press on them. That (early) goal was inexcusable. The boys know you have to defend shirt-tight, especially a fast team like Rocky River."

The Pirates (10-1-1, 5-0 WSC) are ranked eighth statewide in Division II and are tied with Bay for the conference lead. The Panthers (9-2-1, 3-2-0) are ranked second in the state, along with Summit Country Day School of Cincinnati, in Division III. EC plays at Bay next Wednesday.

Schroeder wins 3rd straight title

Jerry Rombach The Chronicle-Telegram

AVON LAKE — It's business as usual, you know, same ol', same ol', in area girls golf. Need proof?

Just take a look at Niki Schroeder — even if looks are misleading.

The Avon Lake junior is small in stature. But when it comes to area girls golf, she's huge, as in amazing.

Wednesday afternoon at Sweetbriar Golf Course. Schroeder demolished the rest Shoregals, good for third overall, western Conference girls cham- and Emily Young 108. pionship with a 2-under-par 70.

Not only was it her third straight individual SWC title, it also helped the Shoregals win their second straight team title.

Schroeder's closest competitor, Olmsted Falls' Ashley Gomez, had an 81. In the team competition, Avon Lake had 362 to easily beat Brecksville's 388.

Braxton Miller, back from an injured knee, will get the starting nod against No. 23 Wisconsin on Saturday night, Meyer said after Wednesday's practice.

"I think Braxton will probably start. He had a good day today and it looks like he's pretty close to 100 percent," Meyer said. "I just wanted to make sure running the ball he's good, too. And he was. And Kenny's good."

"I was really proud of my girls tonight. They played hard against a terrific soccer team," Rozanc said. "That team is full of Division I scholarship athletes and we played with a ton of heart.

"I only used 13 girls tonight. No one wanted to come off the field and no one ever gave up. I had a freshman keeper (Stevie Holbrook) that kept us in the game for as long as she could. I told my assistant coach I didn't feel like they scored one goal against her that wasn't an amazing shot."

The Pirates (11-0-1, 5-0-0 WSC) have no shortage of players who can deliver amazing shots, led by a trio of four-year letterwinners - Grace Bennett, McKenna Klodnick and Megan Killeen. Bennett and Klodnick accounted for all of up by more.

"Elyria Catholic is a really good team, but the last couple of years we beat them by more so I think some of our girls may have come out thinking it would be an easy game. Coach really yelled at us in halftime and told us we need to create more offense."

Rocky River has outscored West Shore Conference foes 37-0 in five matches. Overall the Pirates have outscored the competition 71-4, and the only blemish on their record is a 1-1 tie against Louisville (Ky.) Sacred Heart Academy. The Pirates defeated Elyria Catholic 8-0 in each of the last two seasons.

Bennett took over the scoring in the second half, recording a natural hat trick with goals in the 43rd, 58th and 76th minutes. She has 19 goals on the season.

Boys soccer: Sluggish start costs Elyria Catholic in 2-1 loss to Rocky River, the state's eighth-ranked team in Division I ELYRIA — Even after a slow start against a fast team, Elyria Catholic nearly pulled off a big West Shore Conference win Wednesday night.

Unfortunately, from an EC point of view, the operative word is "nearly."

In a battle of state-ranked teams, Rocky River scored in the second minute then held on for a 2-1 victory at Knights of Columbus Field.

The Pirates' swift defenders allowed the Panthers just four shots on goal. EC's goal came on a penalty kick.

River coach Kevin Zerbey loved the Pirates' early goal.

"That was better than I could have hoped for," Zerbey said. "I've seen the scores and I know how good Elyria Catholic is. I don't know what Attila (EC coach Csiszar) is going to say, but it seemed to me it took them five or 10 minutes to get going. We got that goal in the first two minutes, and that was key."

Csiszar agreed. He said he thought the Panthers were lackadaisical the first 40 minutes.

"We weren't pressuring and they were beating us to every 50-50 ball," he said.

"In the second half, we adjusted and came out strong. We transitioned a little bit and started to press on them. That (early) goal was inexcusable. The boys know you have to defend shirt-tight, especially a fast team like Rocky River."

The Pirates (10-1-1, 5-0 WSC) are ranked eighth statewide in Division II and are tied with Bay for the conference lead. The Panthers (9-2-1, 3-2-0) are ranked second in the state, along with Summit Country Day School of Cincinnati, in Division III. EC plays at Bay next Wednesday.

River forward Anthony Mod scored from close range less than two minutes into the game. That goal held for a 1-0 lead at the break. Then Jacob Wischmeier nailed the eventual winner when he connected with a header off Trent Newby's throw-in in the 57th minute.

Senior midfielder Michael Saddler gave EC an emotional boost when he netted a penalty kick in the 60th minute. The goal came after the Pirates were whistled for a handball in the Rocky River box.

The Panthers played stronger in the second half and created several other scoring chances.

Forward Carl Spaetzel put Pirates keeper Dominica Liva to work with a hard shot in the 44th minute and Gage Jarvis was just wide of the left goalpost with a shot in the 59th minute, a harbinger of the EC score that followed a minute later.

Saddler forced Liva to make a diving save when he got off a rocket in the 70th minute. And he was on target with a free kick from 30 yards six minutes later, but again Liva was up to the task. Also, the Panthers earned several corner

Liva said his life in the net was made more pleasant by the work of the defenders in front of him.

36 at Monsters camp

The Lake Erie Monsters' training camp roster of 36 players includes 17 returning players and 19 newcomers, including two Northeast Ohio natives: Neil Conway, 25 from Concord and Russ Sinkewich, 27, of Westlake. Conway is one of four goaltenders, including returning starter Calvin Pickard. Sinkewich, a defenseman and Bowling Green alumni, played briefly with the Monsters in 2009. Other returning Monsters include Mark Olver, David van der Gulik, Andrew Agozzino AND Michael Sgarbossa. The Colorado Avalanche also assigned defenseman Stefan Elliott and forward Paul Carey to Lake Erie. Training camp, which is free and open to the public, continues today at Iceland USA in Strongsville from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 7-8 p.m. Practice on Friday is 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

BASKETBALL

N.Y. to host 2015 All-Stars

The NBA is bringing its All-Star weekend back to New York in 2015, to be shared by the Knicks and Nets. Barclays Center in Brooklyn will host the Rising Stars Challenge on Friday night and the skills events on Saturday before the 64th All-Star game goes to Madison Square Garden on Sunday, Feb. 15. "To have two brand-new buildings, in effect, is what we have in support of New York City. It's good for basketball. It's good for the teams. It's good for the NBA, and it's great for the city," Commissioner David Stern said Wednesday at a news conference with Mayor Michael Bloomberg.

Taurasi All-WNBA again

Diana Taurasi has tied Lisa Leslie with a record eighth appearance on the All-WNBA team. Taurasi was also on the team in 2004 and from 2006-2011. She averaged 20.3 points and 6.2 assists to get Phoenix back to the Western Conference finals, where it will face Minnesota and fellow first-team members Maya Moore and Lindsay Whalen. Chicago center Sylvia Fowles is the league's leading vote-getter, while WNBA MVP Candace Parker rounds out the squad announced Wednesday. Chicago's Elena Delle Donne, the rookie of the year, made the second team. She was joined by Indiana's Tamika Catchings, Connecticut's Tina Charles, Atlanta's Angel McCoughtry and Minnesota's Seimone Augustus.

Pacers sign Paul George

The Pacers and Paul George announced a contract extension to keep the All-Star forward in Indiana for the next six years. The 6-foot-7 George signed a deal valued between $80 million and $90 million, joining team President Larry Bird and coach Frank Vogel at a news conference. The contract could ultimately be worth more than $100 million if George hits an escalator clause. Last season, the 23-year-old averaged 17.4 points, 7.6 rebounds and 4.1 assists and led the Pacers

Venus advances in Tokyo

Venus Williams rallied from a set down to defeat Simona Halep of Romania 4-6, 7-5, 6-3 Wednesday and reach the quarterfinals of the Pan Pacific Open. Williams, making her first appearance in the Tokyo tournament since 2009, broke serve to lead 5-3 in the third set at Ariake Colosseum. She then won with a crosscourt forehand that No. 13-seeded Halep hit into the net.

Djokovic tweets engagement

The No. 1-ranked tennis player and six-time major champion is engaged to long-time girlfriend Jelena Ristic, according to his Twitter account. On Wednesday, Djokovic tweeted a photo of Ristic kissing him on the cheek and wrote: "Meet my fiance and future wife." After a smiley face, he continued: "So happy! Thank you for wonderful wishes."

LeBron will do powder toss LeBron James is bringing back the pregame powder. The Miami Heat star says he's decided to resume his one-time tradition of tossing powder into the air just before the start of games. He's depicted doing exactly that on the cover of the NBA 2K14 video game that was released this week.

COURTS

No new trial for Sandusky

Former Penn State assistant football coach Jerry Sandusky should not get a new trial after being convicted of sexually abusing 10 boys, a Pennsylvania appeals court ruled in Harrisburg. ... Two more former college football players have filed a lawsuit against the NCAA stemming from concussions and brain injuries. John DuRocher, a quarterback at Washington and Oregon, and Darin Harris, a safety at Washington, are seeking more than $5 million in damages.

NFL

Steelers trade for tackle

The Pittsburgh Steelers have acquired tackle Levi Brown, 29, from the Arizona Cardinals for a conditional draft pick. The winless Steelers (0-4) desperately need help along the offensive line. ... The Ravens have acquired offensive tackle Eugene Monroe from the Jacksonville Jaguars in exchange for multiple draft pick compensation. ... Titans safety Michael Griffin says the NFL fined him $21,000 for his hit on New York Jets receiver Stephen Hill. Griffin has appealed the fine. ... Oakland quarterback Terrelle Pryor returned to practice and was working with the first team after missing last week's game with a concussion. ... Called "Mr. Hitner" for years out of respect for his hard-hitting defense, San Francisco safety Donte Whitner has filed paperwork in Ohio through his lawyer to formally change his name by removing the 'W' - after receiving permission from his mother, Deborah, to do so.

COLLEGES

Saban suspends safety

Alabama coach Nick Saban has suspended star safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix indefinitely for violating team rules. Clinton-Dix is one of the topranked Crimson Tide's top defenders and a projected first-round NFL draft pick.... Despite the government shutdown, the Air Force-Navy football game will be played Saturday after receiving the approval of the Department of Defense.

Westshore Sports Be A Fanatic.com Soccer: River tops Rangers, WSC title contest next

Photos and video by Larry Bennet

The Rocky River Pirates remained in the hunt for a West Shore Conference boys soccer championship with a 3-0 win over Lakewood Wednesday night at Rocky River Stadium.

The Pirates, now 11-1-1 on the season, got the only goal they needed early in the first half. With just 8:28 gone off the clock, sophomore Liam Duncan took the ball and drilled a long, arching shot from 35 yards out that evaded the leaping save attempt of Rangers goalkeeper Robby Fehrenbach.

That gave Rocky River a 1-0 lead. The lead would grow to 2-0 right before halftime when senior Spencer Klodnick went one-on-one with a Lakewood defender and scored with 4:03 remaining.

In the second half, a long ball found its way to sophomore Jacob Wischmeir on the left side. He sent a crossing pass to his right to junior Sutton Klodnick, who beat Fehrenbach for the goal with 29:39 remaining on the stadium scoreboard.

With the win, the Pirates remained unbeaten in WSC games and tied with arch rival Bay for first place. The two teams will play for all the marbles Wednesday at Rocky River at 7 p.m.

Cartwright's big game keys Black River win

Cartwright had 15 points, five aces, 16 assists, four kills and seven digs to lead Black River past Wellington 25-17, 25-8, 25-17 Monday in a Patriot Athletic Conference matchup.

Danielle Jenkins had 16 kills, Makayla Koerner had nine points, three aces and four kills and Louise DeMarco had five points and 16 digs to help the Pirates improve to 8-12, 4-10 in the PAC.

WELLINGTON — Emily Fairview 25-17-23-25-15 Columbia 23-25-25-13-11

> COLUMBIA STATION - Alison Schafer had 11 kills, Emily Viccarone had five aces and Megan Hawke had 32 assists for Columbia

Hearts for Jesus 25-25-25 Open Door 18-17-12

ELYRIA - Ariella Carter led Hearts for Jesus with eight kills and five points in non-conference action. Brianna Foster had 10 points and six kills for the Guardians (25-2).

CLIPPERS From B1

But the 'Horns had the momentum despite the loss and won the next two games to set up a deciding fifth game.

Lutheran West began dominating at the net as Anne Kennedy (five kills), Emile Hausmann (seven kills, two blocks) and Gabby Schultz (five kills, six blocks) took over against a Clearview team that was having trouble with servereception and rarely got into its system.

Despite their troubles in the fourth game, the Clippers led 19-16, but Schultz gave the Longhorns four straight points with blocks. A Clippers serving error gave the Longhorns the game.

"I was really proud of the way we came back and built momentum after losing those first two games," Hausmann said. "We have trouble starting games and you could see us building up to the wins in the third and fourth games."

The Longhorns' momentum carried right over as they jumped out to a 4-1 lead behind two aces from junior Callie Grenig.

The Clippers, who had looked confused at the start of Game 5, battled back to tie the score at 10 as Younkin picked up a solo block and paired up with Madison Fortune for another. But a hitting error and kills by Kennedy and Fortney 15. BLOCKS: (LW) Schultz 7; (C) Younkin 15 (7 kills)

Hausmann gave the Longhorns a 13-10 lead.

Clearview called time out and it must have helped because Lutheran West didn't score another point.

The Clippers, however, picked up one on a hitting error, three on Younkin kills and the match-clincher on a Fortune ace.

"They (Longhorns) really came to play and I expected nothing less from a team coached by Stephanie Rivera," Clearview coach David Dorinski said. "She made some adjustments and stopped their unforced errors.

"Our passing went awry and they kept us out of our system and kept us from getting the ball to Heather. Luckily in that fifth game — it helps when it's only 15 points — we had the right people at the net."

"There are very few kids in the state of Ohio that can say they won four championships. It's hard enough to even play as a freshman and win every year. This is a really special group of seniors."

BOYS SOCCER: OPEN DOOR 1, FIRST BAPTIST 0

Open Door's Mark Woodson tries to kick the ball past First Baptist's Mathias Butcher (15) and back toward the Sabres' goal and goalkeeper Chad Parker. Woodson scored the only goal of the game as the Patriots picked up the win.

Frustrated Patriots finally get one to go

Todd Shapiro The Chronicle-Telegram

ELYRIA— If points were awarded for time of possession, near misses and beautiful passes, Open Door would have blown a fuse on the scoreboard Monday at First Baptist.

However, since you can only score by actually putting the ball in the back of the net, the Patriots were fortunate to escape with a 1-0 win in a non-league battle of the city's two Christian schools.

Sophomore Mark Woodson scored the only goal in the 36th minute on a play that started with a Solomon Dutton free kick from a position just outside of the penalty box.

Dutton played the ball to the face of the net where it glanced off the head of Miki Dutton and onto the right foot of Woodson, who drove it past Sabres goalkeeper Chad Parker for his fifth goal of the year.

Open Door (5-7-3) left the field at halftime after taking nine shots on goal, earning eight some really good reaction saves. This is one of the best games I've seen him play."

Parker finished with 15 saves. Patriots goalkeeper Josh Thomas made some nice saves of his own to preserve the shutout in the second half after First Baptist started to find its offensive rhythm. On two occasions, First Baptist forward Jacob Baker had shots from within the 6-yard box. Each time Thomas, a freshman, put himself in the perfect position to make the save.

"We need to talk more and come into every game with the proper attitude, not expecting that any game is ever going to be an easy win," Woodson said. "First Baptist proved to be a really good team so we're happy that we're able to walk away from here with a win."

Open Door has one more regular-season match, Saturday against Keystone, before it opens Division III sectional play a week from today against Cleveland Martin Luther King.

"We weren't very sharp but give First Baptist credit," Patriots coach Michael Perris said.

"It really felt like we should have had about four goals. This isn't the only game that had been like this. We've struggled with finishing all season."

First Baptist coach Steve Williams gave the credit to Parker, his junior goalkeeper, for frustrating the opponents and keeping the Sabres (8-4-1) in the game.

"Chad is an athlete," Williams said. "He a great basketball player but he wasn't a soccer player until we started the program up last season. He learned to play goalkeeper and has gotten progressively better. Chad made

Johnson, Kelly win relays

Johnson and Kelly clocked 29 minutes, 41 seconds to edge junior Evan Sergent and sophomore Jacob Kordeleski by five seconds (29:46).

Joey Colon and Nathan Crozier (30:06) teamed for third. Other finishers were Jacob Lutz and Christian Lough (30:34), Stephen Sekoulopoulos and Dru Trifiletti (31:06), Chase

"They played a good game and we're fortunate to come away with a win today. We're going to take a couple of days off now to rest up and heal up. I like where we are right now as a team. We just have to keep working on ball movement and getting the ball up the sides of the field and keeping it out of the middle."

The Sabres won't have any time to dwell on the loss. They're back in action today, hosting Grand River Academy in the first round of the Lake Effect Conference tournament.

CAVS

From B1

Unlike the 6-8 Bennett, who is listed at 240 but says he weighs 250 after a summer of inactivity due to shoulder surgery, Waiters is in shape this season. The 21-year-old still has a relatively thick build and probably always will, but the change from early in his rookie year is apparent.

"I feel good," Waiters said. "I'm jumping higher, my body feels good. I did some yoga in the summer. Yoga is hard."

So was previous coach Byron Scott's training camp last year, as it featured more sprints than some track teams run.

"Training camp was crazy," said Waiters, the No. 4 overall pick in the 2012 draft. "I got in shape in two days with Coach Scott. It's good for me. That's what I need for my body."

A year older and wiser, Waiters now realizes he continually needs to work on his fitness and basketball skills. That's why the Syracuse product spent time training with teammates in Miami, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and his native Philadelphia in the offseason.

The goal - and it appears he accomplished it — was to show up at training camp in shape, not use it to get there.

That done, Cavs coach Mike Brown is intent on simplifying Waiters' role on the court, which means the firstteam NBA All-Rookie pick will play almost no point guard this season.

Scott allowed Waiters to run the offense last season and there were some promising moments, but there was never much chemistry between Waiters and All-Star point guard Kyrie Irving because they were frequently changing roles.

That won't be the case this season. Waiters will still get the ball in spots where he can create for himself and others, but he will no longer be charged with running the offense.

"Kyrie's our point guard," Brown said. "When Kyrie's off the floor and Jarrett Jack is on the floor, Jarrett Jack is our point guard. We have plenty of ballhandlers. Now, (Waiters') job will be simplified.

"He's been terrific with what we've talked to him about. He's just tried to get better at it. I'm excited for him."

Waiters might have balked at such a move last season, thinking it was a knock on his playmaking abilities, but now he understands less could be more. Waiters also knows the move should benefit not only him, but Irving, as the latter will still be able to play some shooting guard when he is on the court with Jack.

"They're putting us in a position where we can succeed and help one another," Waiters said. "They want me to be strictly a 2.

feeling good, playing good, then Coach (Scott) would tell you to go get the ball and run pick and roll. Kyrie might have wanted to run pick and roll. We never really established a connection. This year, (Irving) knows where I like the ball and I know where he likes the ball."

Waiters played in 61 games (48 starts) last season and averaged 14.7 points, 2.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists while shooting .402 from the field, .310 on 3-pointers and .748 at the line. Despite missing 21 games, he made more field goals and free throws than any other Eastern Conference rookie.

Of course, the Cavs still finished 24-58. "Just having a year under your belt helps you," Waiters said. "What we went through last year, the team, myself, we're coming back stronger than ever, better than ever."

That includes improved conditioning from the team's starting "Last year, you're out there, you're shooting guard. Just don't ask Waiters to step on the scale, because he still does his best to dodge any mandatory weigh-in.

"If the note says, 'Everybody weigh in,' I walk by it," he said. "I try to sneak by. I don't like it. It's my worst enemy sometimes."

Tip-ins

Second-year center Tyler Zeller, whose slip on the floor midway through the third quarter of a scrimmage Saturday at Baldwin Wallace University led to the cancellation of the rest of the game for safety reasons, has a strained left hip flexor. As a precaution, he is expected to miss the team's exhibition opener tonight at Quicken Loans Arena against the Milwaukee Bucks. Zeller underwent an MRI at Cleveland Clinic Sports Health and took part in limited non-contact drills Monday at practice.

• For the first time, all eight preseason games will be shown by Fox Sports Ohio.

Boy's cancer in remission

The young boy with cancer whose touchdown run at the Nebraska spring football game was viewed by millions online is in remission, his father said. Jack Hoffman, now 8, captured the hearts of Nebraska football fans when, with the players' help, he ran 69 yards to score during April's intrasquad game. His scamper was viewed nearly 8.4 million times on YouTube and replayed on national television. The video also won an ESPY award as the "Best Moment."

SOCCER FIFA focuses on racism

FIFA plans to create an international league table of countries which have problems with racism and discrimination in sports. At a United Nations forum on racism and football, FIFA delegate Tokyo Sexwale said the global "barometer" was central to the football governing body's work to tackle discrimination. "The barometer is going to tell that society that the conduct of your sporting people is bringing your country down," Sexwale said. ... David Beckham earned more than $26 million from personal sponsorship deals in his final full year as a footballer. The former England captain, 38, retired from playing in May. The accounts don't include Beckham's $4 million salary from the L.A. Galaxy.

Heat's Wade takes it easy

Dwyane Wade sat out the Heat's preseason opener Monday against the Hawks. He was penciled into the original starting lineup but said about 45 minutes later that he's not playing, simply to "take a little easy, a little slower." He plays to be ready when the Heat practice today. ... Atlanta forward Gustavo Ayon left the game with an injury to his right arm.

Stewart has 3rd leg surgery

NASCAR driver Tony Stewart is recovering from a third surgery on his right leg following a crash at an Iowa sprint car track. Stewart-Haas Racing said the procedure was done Monday to examine and close a wound on his shin stemming from the broken tibia and fibula he suffered in the Aug. 5 crash at Southern Iowa Speedway. ... Three-time Indianapolis 500 winner Dario Franchitti will need a second surgery on the broken right ankle he suffered Sunday when his car went airborne into the fence during the last lap of the Grand Prix of Houston. He had surgery on the ankle Sunday night.

WEST SHORE CONFERENCE

By Ryan Kaczmarski

For the second year in a row, the West Shore Conference boys soccer championship comes down to Bay versus Rocky River.

Bay won the conference title at home last year, going all the way to the Division II Final four, but this is a new year, and these are two different teams. Both teams are 6-0 in the WSC going into tonight's meeting at Rocky River High School, and Bay head coach Bobby Dougherty expects an evenly-matched contest.

"We want to keep it clean and have a good meeting," he said. "The game is for the conference championship, and both teams have good momentum going.

"Rocky River has played tremendously well this year, and they've had the best start they have had in more than 10 years or so. For them to start 11-1-1, is a heck of a start to the season. It now all comes down to (tonight) with the conference on the line."

Unlike tonight's meeting between the schools' girls teams, a tie for the boys would mean a shared championship.

"No one wants to share (the title)," Dougherty said. "We're all kind of greedy at this point."

Dougherty is not worrying about how to stop Rocky River's potent offense.

"We want to dictate the style of play," he said. "For the back line, we want to be really aggressive in arriving when the ball arrives, so it makes their forwards uncomfortable. Our forwards are tremendous first-defenders for us, so balls played into the opposing team are very difficult. They don't get an easy look.

"Our three players up top have done a great job of putting the other teams under. Then, it comes down to possessing the ball in the midfield. Once we get a hold of it, can we keep it? If we do all of those things, we'll be OK."

Rocky River head coach Kevin Zerbey likes the fact that his team has the chance to cap off a stellar season with a championship in the final game.

"There have been years when Bay or Avon had the title wrapped up with two or three games left," he explained. "It gives two teams, their fans and the communities a lot of interest in that last game.

"It is unfortunate that the girls have to play at the same time as we do, because it splits up the potential fan base, but that is what it is."

Rocky River's success this season has not been the result of one or two players. According to Zerbey, it has been a total team effort.

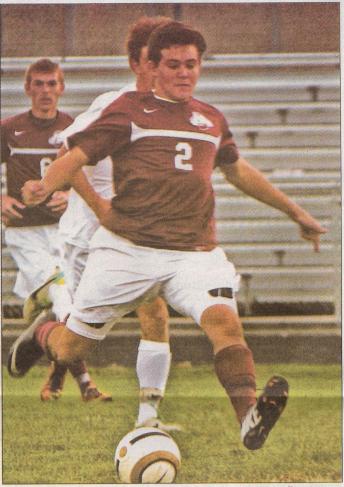

"The way we defend as a team has been really great to see," he said. "This year, the defense really doesn't want any goals going in on them. The team has been really committed on keeping that zero on the other side of the scoreboard."

Zerbey also knows what it takes to beat a team like Bay, even without seeing them play this season.

"It's always the same thing (with Bay); here it is, just try to stop it," he said. "You have to defend dead balls, and you can't foul anywhere near your goal, because every free kick they take is going to go into the net. If you don't deal with that, you're going to have problems.

"They're always really, really fast, and in the years when we didn't have great team speed, we've struggled. We know what to expect, and if we do what we're supposed to do, and they're attentive, I like our chances."

Pirates strike early, top Rockets to claim WSC title these guys. It's Bay, you know?"

The Rocky River boys varsity soccer team clicked on all cylinders Wednesday night.

The Pirates scored early and often, survived a late Bay rally and beat the Rockets, 4-2, to win the West Shore Conference championship at Rocky River Stadium.

"In every game that we've played this year, I've tried to emphasize how important it is to get an early goal," said Rocky River head coach Kevin Zerbey, whose team moved to 13-1-1 overall and finished the WSC season a perfect 7-0.

"It helps us out psychologically and it messes with the other team a bit," Zerbey continued. "I didn't think we would score as fast as we did on Rocky River's senior forward, Spencer Klodnick, scored the opening goal on a redirect of a throw-in that was defended back to the Bay goalkeeper just two and a half minutes into the game.

"That first goal happened because Spencer never gave up on it," Zerbey said. "That ball was thrown in and flicked, and he could have easily said 'It's going to the goalie and I'm not going for it. But he knifed in there, got a toe on it and put it in the goal.

"That goal was so important, because it set a tone of things were going to go," Zerbey said.

Bay head coach Bobby Dougherty made frequent substitutions to keep fresh legs on the pitch at all times, but the Pirates held fast and did not allow the Rockets many offensive opportunities.

"Every time he (Dougherty) was subbing in new guys, we had to deal with the energy that they were bringing. My guys handled it magnificently," Zerbey explained.

"I'd love to say that I taught them how to deal with all of the pressure, but I didn't. It was all them, and it was fantastic to watch."

The Pirates did not let off the gas in the second half. With 25:26 left in the game, Rocky River sophomore Jacob Wischmeier kicked in a goal off of a Trent Newby throw-in.

Three minutes later, the Rockets were called for a hand ball in their own penalty box, setting up a penalty kick which was taken by Rockets junior captain Sutton Klodnick.

"I went up there, and I usually go right-side. But I know the Bay keeper and I kind of thought he knew where I was going," Klodnick said. "He went that way, so I kicked it to the left and it went right in. It was a nice shot, and I knew it.

"This was the biggest game in my life so far," he added. "It was for the West Shore Conference championship, against our rivals at home. We almost shut them out, except for the end."

Now trailing 4-0 in the game, the Rockets started to mount a comeback. The Bay forwards started to shoot at will, putting 11 balls on net in the second half and scoring two goals late in the game.

The first Bay goal was by junior forward Jacob Sooy off an assist by Mark Comienski with 4:57 left in the game. Less than a minute later, senior Brandon Myers found the back of the net to make the final score 4-2.

"Hats off, River kicked our butts," said Dougherty, whose team lost for the first time this season and fell to 9-1-5 overall, 6-1 in the WSC. "They outplayed us tonight. Collectively, as a group, on the field there was never a point where we were getting better.

"We didn't expect it to happen. Coming off of training over the past few days, we played exceptionally well. We just didn't have it tonight, and River just outplayed us from the beginning to the end.

"They did a great job, and they deserved to win tonight. Hopefully, if things go well, we'll see each other in a couple of weeks, and that's the only focus from this day forward," he added.

Bay will play against Westlake on Saturday for the Dover Cup before starting postseason play.

"There will be no change in our game plan going forward," Dougherty said. "Tonight was just one of those nights where nothing worked, no matter who we threw out there.

"It was nice that the boys put in the effort all the way to the end of the game. We got two, and at least it gets the monkey off their backs, that they can do this. We're all right, and it's nothing to get too freaked out about," he said.

Zerbey said he wasn't worried about the late Bay scores going forward. He was just happy to be the conference champions.

"I'm not going to lie. I would have preferred the shutout," said Zervbey, whose team has recorded a school-record 11 shutouts so far this season. "But a win is a win. A shutout would have been sweet, but we know we might see them again for the district over at their place.

"That game would be every bit as tough as this game was, and maybe even more so," he concluded.

Soccer: Teams capable of making playoff push

By SAM AMEEN

sameen@MorningJournal.com

The district tournaments for soccer begin this week, and there are numerous talented local teams that have the potential to make deep playoff runs. The following are some of the top boys and girls teams to keep an eye on in the playoffs.

Top boys teams

Elyria Catholic: Coach Attila Csiszar has done a great job, guiding the Panthers to a 12-3-1 record. Elyria Catholic also finished the regular season ranked No. 3 in the state in Division III. The senior leadership and experience of Michael Saddler and Ryan Medves will be essential to helping the Panthers in the playoffs.

Bay: The Rockets are 10-1-5, but dropped out of the Division II rankings this week after being ranked No. 2 last week. Coach Bobby Dougherty knows what it takes to win after reaching the state semifinals in 2012. Top scorer Dan Linhart (15 goals) was the Rockets only double-digit scorer this year. In order to excel, teammates need to step up offensively to take the pressure off Linhart.

Rocky River: The Pirates finished the regular season No. 5 in Division III after compiling a 13-1-1 record. Rocky River is a balanced team offensively as the Pirates have six players with at least four goals scored. Defense will be a positive component for a deep tourney run – the Pirates have given up seven goals all season. Jacob Wischeimer and Sutton Klodnick are vital for Rocky River.

Sleeper boys teams

Avon: The Eagles are an experienced group. Avon lost in the district semifinals in 2012 to Westlake but returned 13 letter winners. The trio of John DeMarco, Will Sharer and Daniel Minotti will be pivotal for tournament success. Avon finished the regular season at 11-4-1.

Firelands: The Falcons started on an 11-game winning streak, and closed out the regular season at 13-2-1. The offensive duo of Nate Yorks and Jordan Ruffner has combined for 34 goals. Firelands is stingy defensively, allowing just eight goals this year.

Avon Lake: The Shoremen picked a good time to get hot. Avon Lake has won eight in a row (9-4-3). If keeper Kane Adams can continue to defend as well as he has (two shutouts in the past three games) the Shoremen can do well.

Top girls teams

Rocky River: Coach Pat Hopkins has the Pirates at 15-0-1 and also finished as the No. 1 team in Division II. It will be tough to stop one of the best scoring duos in the state – that of Abby Elinsky (34 goals) and Grace Bennett (24 goals). The Pirates have scored 94 goals this season. Defensively, Rocky River is just as tough, allowing six goals on the year.

Bay: Coach Jack Griffiths has a great group of players including Nichole Pohlkamp, Jordan Holmes and Kelly McBride. Ashley Grisnik has also been one of the premier keepers in the area, and what Griffiths has called "The surprise of the team." Grisnik has 98 saves on the year. Bay's eight day layoff before Thursday's tournament match is beneficial to Griffiths squad so his team can nurse some injuries. Four starters have been bothered by injuries. When Bay (10-2-4) is at close to or at full health, they are a difficult team to beat.

Elyria Catholic: Tony Rozanc had high expectations for his team after making it to the D-III regional semifinals in 2012. The Panthers (10-3-3) are a deep and experienced team, as they returned 10 starters from a year ago. The Panthers are balanced defensively and offensively and certainly have the capability of reaching regionals, or even further this season. Some of the Panthers key players include Jenna Ellingson, Keely Birsic and Kirsten Fehlan on the defensive end.

Sleeper teams

Firelands: In her first season as coach, Morgan Ziegler has done a great job (10-5-1) getting the best out of her team, including Brylee Jones and Alyssa Melendez.

Huron: The Tigers have lost one match on the season (9-1-5) and have had great production from senior Amanda Vacca (10 goals 11 assists) and junior Monika Giardina (11 goals 4 assists). Today, Huron will face Northwood on the road.

Brookside: The Cardinals are 8-4-4 and have great offensive weapons in Madison Sours (17 goals, four assists) and Hannah Sours (nine goals, 10 assists). Keeper Arianna Sanchez has played well at keeper, posting 97 saves on the year.

Blood clot forces Vickers out for season

The Associated Press

Brian Vickers will miss the rest of the NASCAR season because of a blood clot in his right calf.

The clot was found after a Monday examination and he was placed on blood-thinning medication that will prevent him from racing. Vickers missed the final 25 races of the 2010 season with blood clots, and during that time required heart surgery.

He said in a statement his physicians are confident he'll be able to resume activity before the 2014 season.

"If there's anything to be positive about with today's news it's that this is only a temporary setback," Vickers said. "The timing for this is never good, but I'm glad we'll get it out of the way now and be ready to run for a championship with the Aaron's Dream Machine in 2014."

Michael Waltrip Racing named

55 Toyota in August. He'd previously shared the seat with Mark Martin and team co-owner Michael Waltrip.

Waltrip had already planned to drive the car this weekend at Talladega, and the team said it will decide later on its driver for the remaining four Sprint Cup Series races

"We were just informed this morning and our concern is for Brian's health," MWR co-owner Rob Kauffman said. "Anything else will be worked out in due course."

Joe Gibbs Racing did not name an immediate replacement for Vickers in the Nationwide Series, which is off until Nov. 2 at Texas.

"We are praying Brian will have a quick and full recovery from this latest issue," team owner Joe Gibbs said in a statement. "Everyone at JGR appreciates all the hard work and Vickers the full-time driver of the No. effort he has given to our Nationwide Series program this year. He is a great competitor and we look forward to seeing him back on the track in 2014."

Vickers has run 22 races with MWR. He has 10 top-10 finishes and won at New Hampshire in July, a victory that solidified his full-time hiring in the No. 55. The win ended a 75-race winless streak for Vickers.

His hiring by MWR was to mark a return to a full Cup ride for Vickers, who last ran for the championship at NASCAR's top level in 2011. He lost that seat when Red Bull Racing pulled out of NASCAR and Vickers ran just eight Cup races in 2012 for MWR.

MWR making cuts

The Associated Press has learned that Michael Waltrip Racing will run only two full-time cars next season because of the loss of sponsor NAPA. Team owners Waltrip and Kauffman began telling employees of their decision. Those affected were told they are free to begin looking for a new job immediately. Two employees spoke to the AP on condition of anonymity because MWR had not publicly announced its decision. The team owners had a Monday afternoon meeting scheduled to go over organizational changes, which will include running the car currently driven by Martin Truex Jr. on a partial schedule. Truex had been previously told he is free to look for another ride, and has been talking to Furniture Row Racing about the seat being vacated by Kurt Busch.

More surgery for Franchitti

Three-time Indianapolis 500 winner Dario Franchitti underwent the second operation on the broken right ankle he suffered Oct. 6 on the last lap of the Grand Prix of Houston. He also fractured two vertebrae and suffered a concussion. IndyCar orthopedic consultant Dr. Terry Trammel said Monday's surgery lasted just over three hours and was to repair the talus bone in Franchitti's ankle. The talus bone connects the leg and the foot. The surgery was performed by Dr. Tim Weber, who told Trammel it "went perfectly and just as planned.' Franchitti's accident occurred when contact with Takuma Sato sent his car sailing into the fence. Debris from the accident injured 13 fans and one IndvCar official.

Focus on aerodynamics

A six-car NASCAR test at Charlotte Motor Speedway focused on the aerodynamic package for 1.5-mile tracks NASCAR had three different configurations that covered seven significant changes at Monday's test. The goal was to help drivers pass easier through more rear downforce or the creation of more turbulent air

The manufacturers brought two cars each. Ford had Brad Keselowski and Trevor Bayne, Jeff Burton and Jamie McMurray were there from Chevrolet and Toyota brought Denny Hamlin and Brett Moffitt.

NASCAR vice president of Innovation Gene Stefanyshyn said the configurations came from computer simulation and wind tunnel testing, and the ideas needed to be tested on the track. Stefanyshyn's role at NASCAR's Research & Development Center is on the development of the race cars

North Carolina women's basketball coach Sylvia Hatchell was diagnosed with leukemia. Hatchell said she would temporarily step away from her coaching duties to focus on treatment. "I will remain very much involved with my team and day-to-day operations here at UNC and expect to return to my sideline responsibilities as soon as possible," Hatchell said in a statement. "My veteran staff and team will be well prepared and meet any challenges until my return. Don't forget I am a Tar Heel woman!'

Hatchell, 61, was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame last month. She's preparing for her 28th season with the Tar Heels and has 908 career victories, making her one of only

• Arizona Cardinals defensive end Calais Campbell was back at the team's practice facility less than 24 hours after he was carted off the field in San Francisco.

• Arkansas athletic director Jeff Long was chosen the first chairman of the College Football Selection committee. The rest of the committee will be announced this week,

• No. 22 Florida will be without running back Matt Jones for the rest of the season.

• A new college bowl game will be played in Nassau, the Bahamas, starting in 2014. The Bahamas Bowl will be part of a bowl series shared by a number of major conferences with the MAC as the anchor. The game will be played at Robinson Stadium, likely before Christmas.

• Missouri quarterback James Franklin will be out three to five weeks with a sprained right shoulder.

• Wisconsin receiver Jared Abbrederis will be evaluated over the next two days for a head injury before it is determined if he can play against Illinois on Saturday.

• Saint Mary's coach Randy Bennett must serve a five-game suspension and won't be allowed to recruit off campus this season as the NCAA upheld penalties against the successful mid-major program for recruiting violations.

• A person familiar with the situation said the Southeastern Conference decided to make Nashville the primary home of the league's men's tournament.

• Whether they want it or not, the Lynx are being cast as the WNBA's next empire. For the second time in three years, the Lynx paraded through downtown Minneapolis after sweeping the Atlanta Dream in the league finals. For a sports market that has been wallowing in the struggles of the Twins and Vikings, the chance to celebrate a truly dominant team received an enthusiastic response.

• Sacramento Kings power forward Carl Landry will have hip surgery today and probably will miss a big chunk of the season.

• Utah Jazz rookie Trey Burke will undergo surgery on a broken finger on his shooting hand.

Football

Raiders stay with Pryor

The worst game of Terrelle Pryor's career won't cost him his job as Oakland's starting quarterback. A day after he threw three interceptions, including two in the final 41/2 minutes of a 24-7 loss to Kansas City, Raiders coach Dennis Allen said he remains committed to Pryor and has no plans to make a change.

• The Buffalo Bills signed freeagent quarterback Matt Flynn in their latest bid to shore up an injury-depleted position.

• Minnesota Vikings linebacker Desmond Bishop's season is over because of a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee.

• Jets running back Mike Goodson tore the anterior cruciate and medial collateral ligaments in his left knee during New York's 19-6 loss to Pittsburgh.

Orioles third baseman Manny Machado had surgery to repair a torn ligament in his left knee.

• Major League Baseball umpire Wally Bell, who worked the NL playoff series between the Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals that ended last week, has died. He was 48. The commissioner's office confirmed Bell's death Monday. He died of an apparent heart attack in his native Ohio.

• Right-hander Jarrod Parker will rest a strain in his right forearm.

• Major League Baseball and the players' association determined that qualifying offers for eligible free agents will be $14.1 million, a raise of $800,000 from last year.

Ski jumping

Van, Alexander cop title

World champion Lindsey Van and Nick Alexander won the U.S. Ski Jumping Championships on Sunday on the K90 Olympic hill in Lake Placid, N.Y. Van scored 250 points with jumps of 92 and 96.5 meters for her 16th U.S. title. Alexander had 263.5 points on two 99-meter jumps for his second national title.

• Lindsey Vonn is about to start training in Europe as she prepares for a possible return from right knee surgery at next week's World Cup opener. Alex Hoedlmoser, U.S. women's coach, told The AP that Vonn was set to arrive in Soelden, Austria, and planned to train on snow beginning today.

Here are the top player of the year contenders to date (see some of the top storylines and things to watch during the postseason this fall here):

Brandon Taylor, Revere: This senior defender is a four-year starter who played a significant role in leading the Minutemen to an undefeated 2013 regular season. With Taylor on the roster, the team finished as Division II state runner-up in 2010 and 2011 and was a district finalist in 2012.

Ryder Bell, University School: Bell is a junior who has started all three of his seasons for University School, including his freshman year. He's scored 30 goals and racked up 10 assists for the Preppers this year.

Ben Locke, Cuyahoga Valley Christian Academy: As a sophomore in 2012, Locke helped lead his team to the Division II boys soccer title game. He's been a big contributor for CVCA once again in 2013.

Dan Linhart, Bay: This junior forward has been a key contributor for the Rockets this year as he was in 2012 when Bay earned a West Shore Conference championship and then went on to win the Rocky River District title. He's netted 15 goals in 2013.

Matt Ivancic, St. Ignatius: Ivancic is a senior defender who translates his game experience into his leadership skills as a co-captain alongside fellow co-captain senior Colin Cleary.

Jordan Shalala, St. Edward: Shalala has been a key component of the Eagles' offensive attack for as long as he's been on the team, proving himself to be a dependable scorer time and time again.

Jake Lombardo, Mentor: Mentor has not hurt for scoring with Lombardo on the field. He's tallied 20 goals and four assists during the regular season.

Anthony Rizzo, Chagrin Falls: With 60 saves on the year, Rizzo has been an invaluable asset. The Tigers will definitely feel confident having him guarding the goal during districts.

Liam O'Halloran, Elyria Catholic: This junior striker has played a major part of the Panthers' success this season as the team will attempt to get its second consecutive district title in 2013.

Dean McNeil, Medina: This Bees goalkeeper had given up only four goals in the first 14 games of the season. He recorded 11 shutouts and, at one point, didn't give up a goal in over 700 minutes of game time.

Chris Brennan, Copley: Brennan was the leading scorer for Copley with 15 goals on the season, powering his team to a No. 1 seed in the sectional/district tournament this year.

Jordan Ianiro, Kirtland: His 27 goals went a long way toward powering Kirtland to a 12-3-1 record. In September, he scored four goals in a single game against Madison.

Sutton Klodnick, Rocky River: One of two Klodnicks making a huge impact for Rocky River this season, Sutton has been a key component in his team's success. He accumulated nine goals and four assists this season as the Pirates earned a West Shore Conference championship.

Who deserves to win boys soccer player of the year honors?

- Matt Ivancic, St. Ignatius
- 🔘 Jordan Shalala, St. Edward
- 🔘 Brandon Taylor, Revere

1/4

Storylines from 2013 season:

1. Minutemen complete undefeated season

Revere finished the season ranked No. 1 in the state among Division II teams, for second year in a row, and ranked No. 4 in the Midwest in U.S. poll. The team wrapped up the 2013 regular season with a 14-0-2 record. The team has outscored its opponents 73-4. The Minutemen gave up goals in only two games this year.

2. Rocky River goes undefeated, wins conference

The Pirates have turned in a fantastic 2013 performance with a 13-1-1 record to claim first place in the West Shore Conference. The team put together an eight-game winning streak at one point during which the Pirates gave up zero goals. Rocky River was not in the state poll among Division II teams as of Oct. 7 but, in the final version released Monday, Rocky River moved into the No. 5 spot. Conference rival Bay, which held the No. 2 spot as of Oct. 7, did not make the final top 10 in the coaches poll.

3. Earning wins and statewide recognition

Elyria Catholic finished No. 3 among Division III teams after not being ranked in the poll last season. The Panthers are defending district champions and finished the 2013 regular season with an overall record of 12-3-1.

4. Newly-formed Titans win Southwestern Conference

In only its first year as a team since the combining of Berea and Midpark to form Berea-Midpark, the Titans claimed the SWC title at 5-1-0. They went 8-4-3 overall.

5. John Hay takes conference title in only third year of existence

Until three years ago, John Hay did not have a soccer program. Three years later, the team has claimed the Senate Athletic League championship with a 6-1-0 mark (went 7-4-0 overall). The team beat defending champ John Marshall, 9-2, to win the title. John Hay was eliminated from the Division II district tournament by Fairview in the first round of sectionals.

6. Four of the top 10 Division II teams are from Northeast Ohio

Revere (1), Cuyahoga Valley Christian Academy (4), Rocky River (5) and University School (7) all made the top 10 of the final state coaches poll, published Monday. Two others, Chagrin Falls (8) and Archbishop Hoban (9), had been ranked in the poll the week of Oct. 7 but dropped out in the final version.

7. WRA down from last year

Western Reserve Academy, which won 16 games and finished ranked No. 1 in the state for Division III teams a year ago, saw a dramatic drop this season. WRA finished the year 7-6-1.

What to watch for in postseason:

1. Bay and Rocky River could meet in district final

Rocky River managed to edge defending district champion Bay for the West Shore Conference crown this season and defeated the Rockets 4-2 the last time the teams met. Bay could get the chance to get even if both teams win their respective sectional/district matchups. Bay defeated Rocky River in the district finals last year, 4-0.

2. No. 1 seed Mentor looks to have a better district run than last year

In the 2012 Euclid District tournament, Mentor held the No. 1 seed but was upset by No. 5 Cleveland Heights, 1-0, in the semifinals. This year, Mentor once again is the No. 1 seed. It also holds the No. 4 spot among Division I teams in the state poll. A rematch is possible.

3. Medina is looking to repeat as district champs

The No. 2 seeded Bees will have to beat No. 3 Brunswick or Wadsworth in order for Medina to be in position to defend its district title. Copley holds the No. 1 seed and Highland is No. 4. Medina defeated Copley in the district finals last season when the Bees were also the No. 2 seed and Copley was No. 1.

4. University School wanting to get another district title, another shot at regionals

For the second straight year, University School enters the Division II playoffs holding the No. 1 seed in its respective sectional/district. In 2012, the Preppers came away with a district championship and made it to the regional finals. They will hope to do the same this season and it all starts with a game against Edgewood on Saturday. US finished the 2013 regular season 9-1-6 overall and 6-0-1 in conference play.

5. Could St. Ignatius-St. Edward rivalry be rekindled on soccer pitch?

Last season, No. 1-seeded St. Edward defeated No. 2 St. Ignatius to claim a Division I district crown, 2-1. This year, St. Ignatius holds the No. 1 seed while the Eagles are No. 2. They could meet in the district final again. No. 3 seed North Royalton could act as a spoiler for the Wildcats while No. 4 seed Brecksville-Broadview Heights could potentially be the same for St. Edward.

6. Can Cuyahoga Valley Christian Academy get back to the state final?

Last year's tremendous season ended in disappointment for CVCA. The team made it to the Division II state championship in 2012 only to lose in a shootout to Dayton Carroll, 3-2. If the Royals are to have a chance at the title this year, the No. 2 seed will likely have to go through No.-1 seeded Revere, which has yet to lose a game in 2013.

7. Are Hawks up to task of flying back to the championship round?

Hawken looked almost unstoppable last year as the team roared its way into the Division III title game, going into the matchup against Cincinnati Summit Country Day at 16-1-4. But Country Day handed the Hawks their second loss of the season. Hawken's battle to try and make a return trip to the championship game begins today, Thursday, at 4:30 p.m. against Fuchs Mizrachi.

8. Aurora looking to get back to regional final

It couldn't have come any closer to the wire for the Aurora Greenmen in 2012 when they fell to Sylvania Southview in double overtime in a regional final. The team holds the No. 1 seed this year and is undoubtedly hungry to get back into contention for another shot at a regional crown.

D-II DISTRICT SEMIFINAL: ROCKY RIVER 4. BUCKEYE 0 Pirates stop Bucks Nothing goes right in loss

Karen Kase The Gazette

ROCKY RIVER - Buckeye came into its Rocky River Division II District semifinal having won 12 of its last 13 games.

However, nothing went right for the Bucks on Wednesday night as they fell 4-0 to Rocky River. The game saw two penalty kick goals, a red card and even a wintery mix of rain, hail and snow.

The loss stings, but doesn't adequately reflect the team's impressive season.

"It was definitely a frustrating night," senior midfielder George Rusinko said. "You've got to be able to handle adversity, and in the past we've done that pretty well. Tonight, not so much.

"But, you know what? We have been a resilient team. Snow, rain, whatever we still stuck together. They outplayed us tonight, but we gave it our best this season.'

The adversity began when the Pirates (15-1-1) were awarded a penalty kick with 22:39 remaining in the first half. Bucks senior defender Ryan Cobb was called for a tackle from behind and Sutton Klodnick calmly buried the shot into the lower left corner past Ryan Huber (6 saves).

From there, the Bucks (15-3-1) settled down and controlled the midfield for a stretch. Unfortunately, the attacks did not result in a goal or even a shot until less than 10 minutes remained.

"I think the penalty kick actually settled us down," Buckeye coach Dan Collins said. "For the next 10 or 15 minutes after that, we dominated and got good opportunities. We are a possession team and we were looking forward to coming here to play on turf. We knew Rocky River was going to be very technically and tactically sound. They were the better side tonight.'

"Buckeye has some very talented players, so I knew we would have to play really well," Pirates coach Kevin Zerbey said. "I was happy with what I saw out there. We were able to rise to the occasion tonight and played good team defense."

Klodnick added his second goal with 8:28 left in the first half. Then, 30 seconds into the second, Jacob Wischmeier intercepted a ball in the air and volleyed it into the net to make it 3-0

Things kept going downhill for the Bucks after that as rain, hail and snow began falling steadily with 26 minutes left. Cobb was issued a red card and sent off, so the team played a man down for the duration.

Klodnick continued to rise to the occasion for the Pirates, completing his hat trick on a second penalty kick due to a pushing violation in the box.

"Tonight, they capitalized and we didn't. We respect them," Buckeye senior midfielder Dan Oswald said. "Coach made us into more of a possession team, and that allowed us to make a run in the playoffs. It's been an awesome senior year. I love this school and this team."

"This is the farthest we have gotten, and a lot of credit goes to the boys," Collins said. "They came in during preseason, worked hard, came together as a team. They played well throughout the season and I am proud of them."

Rockets claim district crown with win over Pirates

Story by John Blake Photos by Bobby Jones

Almost three weeks ago, the Rocky River boys soccer team defeated Bay to earn the West Shore Conference championship.

This time, there was arguably something more important on the line.

The host Rockets, meeting Rocky River for the second time in 17 days, weren't about to let another opportunity slip away. Bay had revenge on its mind and followed through with a 2-0 win over the Pirates Saturday night in the Division II district finals at Bay Memorial Stadium.

Bay, now 13-1-5, jumped on Rocky River for two goals in the first half, both in the final five minutes, and stymied the opposition the rest of the way with the help of junior goalie Colin Southerington. The Rockets advanced to Wednesday night's regional semifinals against Norwalk at Perkins High School.

Bay head coach Bobby Dougherty said the win is a little "bittersweet" considering his friendship with Rocky River head coach Kevin Zerbey. He said the Rockets may have lost the conference championship to Rocky River, but they'll gladly take a district title in exchange.

"I've coached against Kevin for years now and we're very good friends. It's hard," Dougherty said. "The boys played tremendously well tonight and they were ready.

"I was nervous all day, I'm not gonna lie. It's a lot of pride on both of our ends," he said. "Initially when you're not friends with anybody, it's nice just to win and you don't really care. It's hard on both ends. I'm thrilled for our guys, they worked their tails off."

Beating the same team the caliber of Bay twice in a month is a tall task. That was the challenge facing Rocky River, which beat the Rockets, 4-2, on Oct. 9.

Zerbey's squad came out aggressive and the teams battled each other tough until the Rockets broke through with two goals in the final 4:38.

"My guys knew what to do and they knew how to play," said Zerbey, whose team closed out one of its best seasons ever at 15-2-1. "But you give up two goals like those and you can't help but to start having some doubts in your head.

"Coming out of halftime, we felt confident that we could get back in the game," he said. "We just needed a break to get a goal. We couldn't get any possessions really in either half to get down there and have some meaningful attacks."

The Pirates were gift-wrapped one critical chance to cut the deficit in half and steal the momentum in the second half. With 16:10 left in the match, a penalty kick was awarded to Sutton Klodnick, who blasted a shot to his left.

Unfortunately for Klodnick, Southerington dove in the same direction. The junior rejected the ball and any hopes of a Rocky River comeback.

"That's just wrong what he did," said Dougherty.

"All of our keepers know the rules. The rule is you have to make one freakishly good save - a save that nobody expects you to make but you have to come up with one of them.

"He had three tonight. That was the difference in the game. He was phenomenal. You can't expect that from anybody, and he did that tonight."

After Southerington swatted away the shot and the ball flew out of bounds, the entire Bay team on ran to the goalie in jubilation, all the while Klodnick displayed frustration amidst the missed opportunity.

"I usually always go right. It just happened so fast and it felt amazing after that," said Southerington.

"We knew they were going to come out firing, they had all the energy. They beat us last time, they really wanted to win. We had to stay sharp and play our game," he said.

Bay's first goal came at the 4:38 mark when junior Alec White, who is also the kicker on the football heam, sent a line drive about 30 yards through the air to the upper left corner of the net.

"He came down, and when everybody backed away from him you knew it was going to be trouble because the ball was on his right foot," Dougherty said.

"He had a good last touch, and he had everything in the world behind it. He's probably the best athlete we have in the school in his grade," he said.

Less than three minutes later, senior Matt Koch used his head nicely to knock in the Rockets' second and final goal of the night. The Pirates, who had only trailed once all season, certainly had some work to do in the second half.

The penalty kick seemed to be just what the doctor ordered.

"Dougherty had been switching goalies different halves throughout the season," said Zerbey. "That guy, the way he played tonight, it's hard to see how he wasn't the starter the whole year.

"He dominated I think from start to finish with his distribution of his punts and free kicks and everything. That save, that was a hell of a save," he said.

The Bay coach said it helped to get the early lead and put the pressure on the Pirates.

"River's going to come at us," Dougherty said. "They're so athletic, they're so strong. They were convinced they were going to win this thing.

"I'm trying to convince our guys that we've got the wind in the second half, we can keep it simple. Knock it in their end and let's let them make mistakes," he added.

Bay wins district title in rematch with Rocky River

Just two weeks after the Rocky River varsity boys soccer team defeated the favored Bay High School squad for the West Shore Conference title, 4-2, the Rockets came back to take the OHSAA Division II district title against the Pirates 2-0 on Saturday night at Bay Memorial Stadium.

"This is obviously bittersweet," Bay head coach Bobby Dougherty said. "Going into the first game against Rocky River, the boys were playing really well. We had a great week of training, and then we got killed.

"You look at that game and hope it's going to be an eye-opener for your squad, the kick in the pants you needed to get ready for the playoffs. Unfortunately, that was for the conference title. As disappointed as I was in losing that game, I was excited for (Rocky River head coach) Kevin Zerbey to put that team together and kick our butts.

"It all came down to this, and the boys played tremendously well tonight. They were ready, and I was nervous all day. I'm really thrilled for our guys."

Bay (13-1-5) took the early lead on first-half goals by Alec White and Matt Koch to go into halftime up 2-0, and kept the momentum going the rest of the game.

"We knew that Rocky River was not going to stop," Dougherty said. "They are so athletic and so strong, and they were convinced that they were going to come back and win this game.

"I told my team, 'Look, we have the wind at our back in the second half, so let's keep it simple and knock it into their end and not make any mistakes."

Bay goalkeeper Colin Southerington tallied nine saves in the match, including a penalty kick save in the closing minutes.

"It just happened so fast, and it was done," Southerington said. "It felt so amazing to get that save.

"We knew that they were going to come out firing tonight, and we knew that we had to stay sharp and we would take it away today."

"Colin came up with the save that's out of his mind – and that's just wrong, what he did (to Rocky River)," Dougherty said with a smile. "The rule is that in each game, your goalkeeper will have to make one freakishly good save. You should have to make one of them, and Colin made three tonight."

Rocky River managed 14 shots on goal in the game, but committed 17 fouls in the loss.

"My guys knew what to do and how to play, but when you give up two goals like those, you can't help but to start having some doubts in your head," Zerbey said. "Coming out of halftime, we were confident that we could get back into the game, but we needed a break to get a goal.

"Really in either half, we didn't have too many good opportunities at their goal."

Rocky River goalkeeper Dominic Liva recorded six saves in the loss, which ended Rocky River's season with an impressive record of 15-2-1.

RRHS SOCCER TEAMS

BY MANNY MAROTTA

It's not hard to think that this year's boys' soccer team is some sort of dream team. Their nearly impeccable record this season has proven their worth, and win after win is securing the team's position as a legacy.

The season for these boys started earlier than the games. In August, they went to a camp with new coaches.

"At camp, we really started to improve," junior forward Anthony Mod said, "We did so well, our confidence shot up."

"We put in a ton of work in pre-season," sophomore sweeper Liam Duncan said. The camp led to a great pre-season, which in turn created a successful season.

The team is used to scoring wins, but not nearly this many.

"I didn't see this kind of record coming," junior midfielder Nathaniel O'Halla said. O'Halla is a co-captain this year, and many on the team attribute their success to his and the other captains' (Junior Sutton Klodnick and Senior Trent Newby) effort.

"We didn't entirely expect this," sophomore midfielder Collin Trudell said, "But in pre-season, we could see that there was something special coming."

Although unexpected to this degree, success did come. The source is not known, but there are many speculations. Many, such as Senior defender Hawken Sawyer, attribute it to team camaraderie.

"The team chemistry is the highest it's ever been," Sawyer said, "We're all friends and all experienced. Our shutouts motivate us to work harder in future games."

"Teamwork, communication and hard work have pushed us together and helped us work better," Trudell said, "Our attitude toward each other is great."

"I'd like to thank the brotherhood," O'Halla said, "We've had lots of fan support, and I think that's [one of the main contributors to our success]."

Fan support has been great for the team so far. The support comes from the amazing record which accumulated to the final goal. Each of the team members has good reason to be satisfied with his performance this season.

"I've had time both as a Varsity player and a JV player," Trudell said, "That's been helpful in my personal growth."

Others are more critical of themselves despite their good performance. No matter how well they play, there is always room for improvement.

"I've struggled in some games," Sawyer said, "sometimes, I feel I should be there for my teammates more."

"I need to learn to control my temper," O'Halla said, "I'm hard on myself about that."

Despite any problems they may have, the boys' soccer team's dynamic has always pulled them through. Their dedication to each other and their sport is unparalleled by others, and their passion is what has led to many wins, such as the amazing WSC Champion-ship win against Bay Village on October 9.

Because of this game, the team is now moving on to playoffs. If they are successful, they will win districts and may even go to the state tournament.

"It's been a ton of years since we've gone this far," junior midfielder Chase Newby said, "I'd really like to see us go to states and make the school proud."

No matter what happens and how the playoffs go, boys' soccer is determined to keep the ball rolling.

Girls soccer All-Stars Abby Elinsky led River to state title

From staff reports

Abby Elinsky scored 43 goals for the Rocky River Pirates in 2013, but none was bigger than what proved to be the game-winning goal in the biggest game in program history.

Elinsky had a goal and an assist in the Pirates' 3-1 win over Granville in the Division II state championship game. The win gave Rocky River its first-ever girls soccer state championship and the school's first state championship in any Ohio High School Athletic Association-sanctioned sport in 86 years.

Elinsky's season earned her tremendous honors, including the Ohio Scholastic Soccer Coaches Association Miss Soccer Award, the Division II player of the year and The Plain Dealer Girls Soccer Player of the Year award.

For Elinsky and her teammates, winning the championship this season was more of an expectation than a goal.

"It's a great feeling," Elinsky said. "But after all the hard work, and just the team working so well together and all of us staying focused for our main goal, it wasn't so much of a surprise, but it was very rewarding."

match, with Elinsky scoring the second goal to put her team in front early, 2-0. After Granville's Nikki Cox cut the lead to 2-1 on complishments.' a penalty kick, Elinsky set up her senior teammate Grace Bennett, who scored the game's first goal, and Bennett finished to score the ery one of the records in the relast goal

Boys basketball Top 25 VASJ aims to be first in Ohio to win a title in every division

From staff reports

It's almost time for boys basketball season, and that means it's also time for The Plain Dealer boys basketball Top 25 poll.

In a year in which the talent is as good as ever in Northeast Ohio, plenty of teams are capable of making a deep run in the tournament.

1. Villa Angela-St. Joseph: Last season: 25-4, Division IV state champs.

The team graduated Duane Gibson Jr. and Demonte Flannigan, but all of the other key contributors are back from last year's state title winner. With Carlton Bragg, Dererk Pardon and Brian Parker, the Vikings have the talent to compete with anyone in the country. They move up to Division state title in every division.

2. St. Vincent-St. Mary: Last season: 20-10, lost in Division II state title game.

V.J. King, Jalen Hudson and the Irish will try to get rid of the bad taste of losing in last year's state championship game. Newcomers Josh Williams and Jibri Blount could be what the team needs to cut down the nets at the end of this season.

3. Shaker Heights: Last season: 20-6, lost in Division I regional final.

Adding point guard T.J. Steele, a Benedictine transfer, to a group that already includes Esa Ahmad, Rosel Hurley and Kaleb Roy heightens expectations even more. The Raiders were a win away from Columbus last season and have what it takes to get there this year.

4. Mentor: Last season: 25-5, Division I state champs.

This is a team that will only get better as the season goes on, especially when you consider Conner Krizancic, the Cardinals' likely point guard, won't play until football season is over. Once Mentor gets everyone together, it will once again be state title or bust.

5. St. Edward: Last season: 19-6, lost in Division I district final.

Coach Eric Flannery brings back several experienced players, led by Marsalis Hamilton and Tony Vuyancih. As usual, the Eagles have a tough schedule to get them prepared, including a trip to California for the MaxPreps Holiday Classic.

6. Garfield Heights: Last season: 15-7, lost in Division I sectional final.

Garfield Heights returns just two seniors, including Ohio State-bound center Dave Bell, but has high hopes and expectations for big things. One reason why is Vonte Montgomery, a Cleveland Central Catholic transfer, who can score in bunches.

7. St. Ignatius: Last season: 21-4, lost in Division I district final.

The loss of Francisco Santiago is a big one, but the Wildcats have the talent to not miss a beat. Expect coach Sean O'Toole to rely heavily on the frontcourt combination of Eric and David Black, who can match up with almost anyone on the low blocks.

13. Glenville: Last season: 17-5, lost in Division I sectional final

For the Tarblooders, it all starts in the backcourt with the duo of Jimond Ivey and Chris Coker. Although Glenville won the Senate title last year, it won't be as easy this season with talented East Tech and John Hay squads.

14. North Royalton: Last season: 23-2, lost in Division I regional semifinal.

A two-point loss to Shaker Heights was all that stood between the Bears and an appearance in the regional title game last season. Sophomore Omari Spellman is back with increased experience and strength, but this time around, he won't be sneaking up on anyone.

III and look to be the first Ohio team to ever win a 15. Bedford: Last season: 18-8, lost in Division I district semifinal.

The Bearcats lost coach Matt Miller but have some talent coming back, including All-Lake Erie League junior point guard Mike Smith, a third-year varsity player. This team appears ready to keep moving forward.

16. Brunswick: Last season: 14-11, lost in Division I district semifinal.

Ryan Badowski is back, and as one of the best scorers in the area (16 ppg), he'll have Brunswick in plenty of games this season. The Blue Devils will need someone to help him out, though, and Zach Parker might just be that guy.

17. John Hay: Last season: 12-10, lost in Division II sectional final.

Transfer Cristen Wilson, a Division I college prospect, joins three experienced senior guards as the Hornets hope to have success in the rugged Senate Athletic League. A city title and deep tournament run are the goals.

18. Medina: Last season: 13-10, lost in Division I sectional semifinal.

One of the most notable transfers this off-season was junior Craig Randall, who moved from Girard to Medina. As a sophomore, he averaged 23.5 points and he's one of the main reasons Medina is expected to compete in the Northeast Ohio Conference Valley Division, one of the toughest leagues in Ohio.

19. Berea-Midpark: Last season: The schools merged this school year. Berea went 14-9 and lost in a Division I district semifinal. Midpark was 16-8 and lost in a Division I sectional final.

Combining Berea and Midpark gives the new school the best of the best from two strong programs. Leading the way will be guard Alex Brown, who averaged nearly 20 points for Berea last sea-

20. Brush: Last season: 15-9, lost in Division I district semifinal.

With improved shooting and better depth, this is a Brush team that can do some damage. The Arcs are led by two underclassmen - guard Chris Oakley and forward Justin Sylver - and if they can take the next step, this is a dangerous team.

Boys soccer All-Stars Jake Lombardo is first team All-Ohio

ROBERT ROZBORIL rrozboril@cleveland.com

A pair of game-winning playoff goals are just two reasons why Mentor forward Jake Lombardo is The Plain Dealer Boys Soccer Player of the Year for 2013.

Those goals in the Division I regional finals and state semifinals sent the Cardinals to the state championship game. Although Mentor lost to Mason in the title game, it does not diminish the outstanding senior season Lombardo had. Lombardo tallied 23 goals and eight assists, more than tripling his scoring numbers from 2012. He earned the title of first team All-Ohio, and MVP of the Northeast Ohio Conference.

He achieved all of this while playing alongside longtime teammates Colin Eedy, Brock Venman and Matt Markiewicz.

The four players have competed together for the past eight years, on travel teams and in high school.

He describes himself as a quick, explosive player with a good touch on the ball.

Lombardo began playing soccer when he was 6-years-old.

"I have a lot of good support from my mom and her husband and my family," Lombardo said. "They all kind of push me to be better every single game. If I play not as good in one game, they talk and I come in stronger the next game.'

He said his mom has had the greatest impact on him.

"She pushes me a lot. She's my rock. She's my everything," he said. "Without her, I don't know where I'd be right now. She's pushed me to do everything I've aspired to do."

8. Beachwood: Last season: 23-4, lost in Division sion II regional semifinal. III regional final.

Matt Miller will coach the Bison after three seasons at Bedford. Miller inherits an experienced team ready to take the next step led by last year's Division III Northeast Lakes District Player of the Year John Davis III and senior Trey Sanders.

9. Central Catholic: Last season: 18-7, lost in Division II district final.

Antwon Lillard, Tervell Beck and Brandon Peters return to lead a young Ironmen team full of talent. Central Catholic also adds All-Senate Athletic League post Montel McRae, a junior transfer from Martin Luther King, to the mix. This team is VASJ's greatest challenge for a league title.

10. Warrensville Heights: Last season: 17-10, lost in Division II regional final.

Warrensville Heights returns an experienced team led by senior Charles Franklin and sophomore Yavari Hall, both of whom were All-Lake Erie League selections. The team was a surprise last season and now looks to become a perennial contender.

11. East Tech: Last season: 17-9, lost in Division I district final.

Last year, it was all about Kyauta Taylor, who was Senate MVP, and Johnell Free. Now add Martin Luther King transfer Anthony Carmon, and East Tech has three players that averaged at least 20 points per game last season.

12. Cleveland Heights: Last season: 18-5, lost in Division I district semifinal.

The experienced Tigers may have as good a collection of guards as anyone, led by Delaunte Davis. Cleveland Heights will battle it out with Warrensville Heights in conference play.

21. Benedictine: Last season: 10-16, lost in Divi-

There's a lot of work to do, as this team is made up mostly of inexperienced underclassmen. Early on, the team will rely heavily on R.J. Jones as an offensive contributor and a leader. Expect Benedictine to be better toward the end of the season.

22. Lake Catholic: Last season: 13-9, lost in Division II district semifinal.

Three-year starter Zavier Powers returns for the Cougars after averaging nearly 17 points per game. Lake Catholic adds point guard Justin Robinson, who started at St. Peter Chanel last season but transferred after the school closed.

23. Gilmour: Last season: 21-4, lost in Division III district final.

The Lancers return five seniors, including All-Ohio honorable mention Colin Zucker, and hope to have the type of chemistry to build off a district runner-up appearance. The program could be on the verge of a signature season.

24. University School: Last season: 17-8, lost in Division II district final.

The Preppers entered last season with four senior starters, so there will be plenty of talent to replace. DeAndre Austin is the lone starter who returns, and he's a guard who can not only score but also get his teammates involved.

25. Cuyahoga Falls: Last season: 13-11, lost in Division I sectional final.

In a wide-open Northeast Ohio Conference River Division, the Tigers have what it takes to win the title. Watch out for 6-foot-7 senior Angelo Cugini, who is now two years removed from a stint at St. Vincent-St. Mary and can do a little of everything on the floor.
