Morgan Berg (RRGS 2012, RRHS Grad 2013)
Graduate, Thiel College Tomcats (2016)
(see Bio also in soccer)

2016 (Senior) (Outdoor): Thiel College graduate Morgan Berg was officially named a nominee Tuesday for the 2016 NCAA Woman of the Year award.

The Woman of the Year Award program, established in 1991, is in its 26th year of existence. There were 517 honorees in 2016, 169 of which represented Division III. Of the 517 honorees, Berg was among the 127 student-athletes who competed in more than one sport.

Berg was named to the 2016 USTFCCCA All-Academic NCAA Division III Women's Track & Field Team. Berg was one of 423 women from 129 institutions to earn USTFCCCA All-Academic honors for individuals with combined academic and athletic accomplishments.

To qualify for the USTFCCCA All-Academic Track & Field Team, a student-athlete must maintain a cumulative grade-point average of 3.30. In addition, they must have competed in an NCAA indoor or outdoor championship or finished the regular season ranked in the national top 35 in an individual event or ranked in the national top 25 in a relay event.

In May, Berg was named to the USTFCCCA All-Mideast Region team in the 100-meter hurdles with the second-best time in the region (14.41). She was also named to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District First Team. Berg was one of Thiel College's representatives at the Third Annual PAC Scholar Athlete of the Year Banquet in May. An early childhood/special education major, Berg has secured an elementary teaching job in Virginia, and she may be interested in coaching track & field in the future.

Berg earned her fourth-straight indoor track & field title in the 60-meter hurdles, finishing with a winning and conference record time of 9.03 seconds in the finals, at the PAC Indoor Championships in February. She finished first and set school and conference records in the 100-meter hurdles (14.55) at the PAC Outdoor Championships in April. She also won the triple jump (35-0.5) and finished fifth in the long jump (15-11.5) at this year's outdoor championships. Since the PAC Outdoor Championships, she broke her own school record in the 100-meter hurdles on multiple occasions. Her best career finish in the 100-meter hurdles (14.41) occurred during the 11th Annual Gator Invitational, hosted by Allegheny College, on May 13. Berg went on to place 12th in the 100-meter hurdles (14.48) at the 2016 NCAA Division III Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

2015 (Junior) (Outdoor): Ran for fourth in the 100m hurdles and 46th in the 200m dash at Early Bird Invitational...Took first place in the 100m hurdles at the Bobcat Invitational and finished eighth in the 200m dash...Earned third in the 100m hurdles and second the triple jump at the Slippery Rock Open...Finished ninth at the Westminster Invitational and took the first place medal in the 100m hurdles...Earned third place with both the 4x100m and 4x400m relay team and earned seventh in long jump at the PAC North Quad...Earned 17th in the triple jump and sixth in the 100m hurdles at the Dave Labor Invitational...Won the triple jump event (34-05), ran for sixth place with the 4x400m relay team and earned second in the 100m hurdles with a time of 14.92 seconds, which is a lifetime best and a new school record at the PAC Outdoor Championships.
