Programming and Resources for Seniors

Senior Exit Survey – Due Monday, May 6

Seniors need to complete the "Senior Exit Survey - updated" within their Naviance account by Monday, May 8. Students should access Naviance through their Clever portal. Once there, please use the following navigation instructions: On the home page, in the upper right-hand corner, click on the "About Me" tab. Click on "Surveys from your school" and go to "Senior Exit Survey - Updated".

Scholarships

Students should log in to their Clever account to account Naviance. Once on the Homepage, click the "Colleges" tab at the top of the screen. Then, under Scholarships & Money, navigate to Scholarship List. Here you can either look for College-Specific Scholarships, or click on "Local and Regional Scholarships" to access over 150 that we have shared with you. A great option is to sort by Deadline to see upcoming scholarships that may interest you.

Another option is to navigate to "Colleges", then under Scholarships & Money, there is the "National Scholarship Search", powered by Sallie Mae, containing over 3.5 million scholarships worth over $18 billion.

NCAA

Seniors who are interested or planning to participate in athletics at the college level should be sure to visit the NCAA Eligibility Center to create their account at: <https://web3.ncaa.org/ecwr3/>.

Children's Mental Health Awareness Month

The Rocky River City School Counselors would like to recognize Children's Mental Health Awareness month in May by providing you with some resources and information to raise awareness about the importance of children's mental health and show that positive mental health is essential to a child's healthy development. We hope everyone can incorporate some of these tips to promote strong mental health and well being during this very busy month and as we transition into Summer over the next few weeks.

Free Summer Camps at Miami University

The programs are open to students who will be a high school sophomore, junior, or senior in Fall 2024. The Farmer School of Business will host the following events this summer:

Discover U in Business - Thursday, June 20 - Saturday, June 22, 2024

Miami University Accounting Program \(MAP\) - Thursday, June 27 - Saturday, June 29, 2024

Cybersecurity & Information Systems Camp - Wednesday, July 17 - Saturday, July 20, 2024

During each camp, students will have the opportunity to collaborate in teams, build relationships with staff in the Farmer School of Business, meet professionals working in business, stay in a residence hall to experience campus life, and have a great time interacting with other students. The camps target students from historically underrepresented populations, first generation college students, or who have a commitment to promoting a deeper understanding of and appreciation for diversity. Students representing different ethnic/racial backgrounds are encouraged to apply. We also encourage all students to apply even if they are uncertain about business. The application deadline is May 12 for Discover U and MAP; the application deadline is May 25 for the Cyber camp.

Naviance

Naviance Student is a comprehensive website that you can use to plan for college and a career while providing a service that we use in our office to track and analyze data about college and career plans, so it provides up-to-date information that is specific to our school. It allows you to:

- Get involved in the planning and advising process – Build a resume, complete online surveys, and manage timelines and deadlines for making decisions about colleges and careers
- Research colleges – Compare GPA, standardized test scores, and other statistics to actual historical data from our school for students who have applied and been admitted in the past
- Research careers – Research hundreds of careers and career clusters, and take career assessments
- Create plans for the future – Create goals and to-dos, and complete tasks assigned to you by the school to better prepare yourself for your future college and career goals

Naviance Student also lets us share information with you about upcoming meetings and events, local scholarship opportunities, and other resources for college and career information. You can also use the site to stay in communication with the counseling office.

Students are encouraged to review their Naviance account and complete all assigned tasks. Please log into your account via your Clever account. These tasks are designed to assist you better understand yourself and how you learn, aid you in the career exploration process, and provide you with detailed information in your college search.

Are you in the “Know”?

We encourage parents to learn about “Know!” by visiting <https://www.drugfreeactionalliance.org/know> or <http://www.rrcs.org/Know.aspx>. These bi-weekly articles are great ways for parents to stay informed about the struggles our students are facing.

Search Institute’s 40 Developmental Assets Framework

Search Institute has identified 40 positive supports and strengths that young people need to succeed. Half of the assets focus on the relationships and opportunities they need in their families, schools, and communities (external assets). The remaining assets focus on the social-emotional strengths, values, and commitments that are nurtured within young people (internal assets). You can learn more at: <https://www.search-institute.org/our-research/development-assets/developmental-assets-framework/>.

Career Shadowing

The Career Shadowing program at Rocky River High is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors who are interested in a specific career area and/or who would like to discuss and explore possible career options. Please visit <http://www.rrcs.org/CareerShadowing.aspx> or see Mrs. Bernadette Kronz in the Counseling Office for more information.
