

Room 208's Weekly Newsletter

Week at a glance

math workshop	This week the students will focus on creating pictographs and bar graphs. We will learn how to identify the aspects of these graphs (labels, scale and titles) and interpret them based on collected data.
Reading workshop	We are focusing on the genre "expository text". The students will learn about Mount Rushmore this week and will be asked to read biographies and choose a fifth person that should be carved into the landmark!
writing workshop	We will be using the hamburger analogy to help students correctly write paragraphs. Top Bun: Topic Sentence Juicy Details: Hamburger, cheese, lettuce, tomato, onion Bottom Bun: Conclusion Sentence  Yum!
science® S.S.	This week we will use cardinal directions to lead a student around a location. This skill will help us as we create our maps from Kensington to our houses!
foundations	This week we will look closely at vowel-consonant-e exceptions. These words should have a long vowel sound however, they are exceptions and do not follow this rule. Examples: give, live, have  Sound Alike Words: mail and male  Cursive Letters: c, a

Spooky Saturday

SPOOKY Saturday

October 24th (11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.)

Looking for some Halloween fun? Don't miss this Rocky River tradition at Kensington. A carnival filled with games, a fortune teller, pumpkin raffle, bake sale, cake walk, and much, much more.

To purchase tickets online, click here. Tickets can also be purchased during lunch October 21st thru 23rd and, of course, the day of the event.

And remember, this wonderful event cannot happen without volunteers (over 100 of them). If you would like to help out this wonderful event, please click here to sign up.

For more information, please contact Amy Dewey at achiki\_1@yahoo.com. The kids of the Rocky River community thank you in advance for keeping the tradition going year after year.
