RRHS Ranks 2nd in State

Rocky River High School obtained the second highest Performance Index ranking compared to all other public high schools across Ohio. Performance Index Score (PI) is calculated based on student state testing performance. The Rocky River City School District placed fourth in the state overall. This article provides a detailed breakdown.

RRHS Named as 2024 College Board Gold School

The College Board recently announced that Rocky River High School has been named to the 2024 Advanced Placement (AP) Program School Honor Roll as a Gold school. The recognition honors schools whose AP programs are delivering results and broadening access for students. More information can be found here.

Education Article

Why aren't grades aligning to standardized test performance for students? This article looks at the issue in-depth.
