

WINTER 2019

You're not alone

Connecting for Kids (CFK) provides education and support to families who have concerns about their child. We serve all families, including those children with and without formal diagnoses. CFK offers educational programs, support groups, a Parent Match Program and numerous resources.

Designed for your family

Programs are designed to educate and support families of children (birth - 12 years) who are struggling. Look for these icons to choose programs for your family:

- Y Families with young children (0-6 years)
- E Families with elementary-aged children (7-12 years)
- A All families with children (0-12 years)

How to Apply for Grants for Children with Special Needs A

Join Julie K. Robie, Esq. of Community Fund Management Foundation (CFMF) as she takes participants step-by-step through the process of applying for CFMF Accessibility Grants and CFMF Education, Therapy, and Services Grants. Also, Amy Clawson of Ohio Family 2 Family will present how to create your child's medical summary and how to write a vision statement to supplement your grant applications and other uses. Families are encouraged to bring a laptop or other device to begin their application. Co-sponsored by CFMF and Ohio Family 2 Family.

Saturday, February 23, 1:00 pm
Westlake Porter Public Library

Potty Training the Challenging Child A

Join Courtney Evenchik, MA, NCSP, and Nikki Jaras, MS, BCBA, COBA, of A+ Solutions, to discuss how and when to potty train. Attendees will break into two groups to talk about the issues most relevant to their situation: 1) Toddlers/Preschoolers who are resisting attempts to potty train; 2) Elementary-aged children who are not yet potty trained.

Wednesday, February 27, 6:30 pm
Solon Branch of Cuyahoga County Public Library

Sensory Strategies to Build Every Child's Self Control and Competence A

Join Meghan Barlow, PhD, of Meghan Barlow and Associates, and Christine Chambers, OTR/L, MEd, of Abilities First, LLC, as they provide practical tips that families can implement immediately to help children successfully navigate through their daily activities. Learn 'pregame' sensory strategies and activities for waking up and getting ready, handling unexpected situations, staying calm at social gatherings, completing work, and learning to play and have fun in a variety of environments. This program is for typically developing children as well as children with developmental delays.

Friday, March 15, 11:30 am
Westlake Porter Public Library

How Play Therapy Helps Anxiety and Behavior A

Join Tierney Payne, LPCC, of The Nord Center, as she models how families can use play therapy to help a child work through meltdowns, behavior problems, sleeplessness, anxiety and other issues. Not only can play therapy help improve these concerns, it can also strengthen the relationship between a parent and child. This interactive session will include examples for both preschool and elementary-aged children. Co-sponsored by Ready Set Go... to Kindergarten.

Thursday, March 28, 6:00 pm
Elyria Public Library System, West River Branch

Coffee and Chat

Join our interactive support group and meet other families facing similar struggles. Free, supervised children's activities are available, but adults and children must register separately. connectingforkids.org/support

Viewing of "The Unconditional" Documentary A

The Krakowiak family of Olmsted Falls is featured in this unflinching documentary of their daily life caring for two children with complex needs. Join us to view and discuss the film with the Krakowiak family and then have an opportunity to share your own experiences caring for your children. Lisa Ruman, LISW, CHt, of The Child & Family Counseling Center of Westlake, will facilitate our discussion.

Tuesday, January 15, 6:00 pm
Westlake Porter Public Library

Food Allergies: Support and Resources A

Whether your child is newly diagnosed with food allergies or you have been on this journey for years, we invite you to join Abby Glick, MD, of Northeast Ohio Food Allergy Network (NEOFAN) and other families as we discuss our experiences. We will share tips for dealing with food outside the home and managing family and friends who just don't understand. We will also discuss "25 Things Only a Food Allergy Parent Would Understand". Co-sponsored by NEOFAN.

Tuesday, March 5, 6:30 pm
Westlake Porter Public Library

Our Speaker Series and Coffee and Chat programs offer free supervised children's activities, managed by licensed professionals. Our team has experience in early childhood education and speech-language pathology. These professionals are also trained in first aid and experienced with a number of special medical concerns.

A family drums together at Music Therapy & More in Elyria.

Music Therapy & MoreSM Y

This program is designed for families and their children (ages 0-6 years) who are struggling in an area of development. Join us for a hands-on program designed to teach families how to use music to improve their child's motor, communication and social skills as well as behavior. This program is led by a Board-Certified Music Therapist. Siblings (ages 0-6 years) may also attend but must register separately.

Teach Me to PlaySM Y

Do you want to help your child learn to play with others? Are you looking to give your child more social opportunities? With fun, new themes each month, Teach Me to Play offers your child a host of new activities and experiences each time he or she attends. Your child will enjoy playing with other children while practicing language and social skills. Since you attend together, you will have the opportunity to interact with our experienced Early Intervention Specialist and Speech-Language Pathologist who can provide strategies for dealing with problem behaviors and offer tips for increasing your child's communication skills. This program is specifically designed for children ages 18 months-6 years who are struggling in an area of development. Come connect with other families in a supportive and accepting environment.

WINTER PROGRAMS BY PROGRAM TYPE

Elementary ExperiencesSM Hands-on Family Training

These hands-on training programs are designed for families and their children (ages 7-12 years) who are struggling. Families will learn targeted skills together and receive a handout with ideas and resources to use at home. Adults are expected to participate in the program with their children. Siblings (ages 7-12 years) may also attend but must register separately. connectingforkids.org/elementary

Keys to Conversation

Wendi Willmer, MA, CCC-SLP, of Busy Hands Bright Minds, LLC, will teach attendees simple conversation strategy skills such as choosing a topic, joining a conversation with friends, continuing a conversation appropriately and switching topics. Families will have the opportunity to interact with each other and with other attendees to practice what they have learned.

Saturday, January 12, Sessions begin at 1:00 pm and 2:30 pm
Westlake Porter Public Library

Now We're Cooking: Learning Functional Skills in the Kitchen

Join Jamie R. Hughes, MA, CCC-SLP, Maria Llerena, OTR/L, and Elizabeth Radachi, BCaBA, of The KIDnections Group, LLC, as they teach you how to incorporate skills such as following directions, problem-solving, language, fine motor, self-help and social communication into cooking no-bake recipes with your child. They will also guide you on ways you can adapt cooking activities to best fit your child's abilities and your family's needs.

Saturday, January 19, Sessions begin at 1:00 pm and 2:30 pm
Middleburg Heights Branch of Cuyahoga County Public Library

Tired? Silly? Overwhelmed? Move to Content!

Join Sarah Glass, MA, BCaBA, of Oh, Hi! Social Skills, as she teaches how to manage emotions using strategies such as the Zones of Regulation. Families will learn together how to identify different emotional states and ways to self-regulate. Glass will use role plays, video clips and visuals to illustrate how behavior in specific zones affects others.

Saturday, February 2, Sessions begin at 1:00 pm and 2:30 pm
Lakewood Public Library, Main Library

Social Series: Using your Social Filter

Join Ellen Spear, MA, CCC-SLP, of Lakeshore Speech Therapy, LLC, as she helps children use their "brain filters" and understand how words and actions have an effect on others. Families will learn together how to decipher the hidden rules of inside thoughts versus expressing a thought out loud.

Saturday, February 9, Sessions begin at 1:00 pm and 2:30 pm
Solon Branch of Cuyahoga County Public Library

Managing Anger and Controlling Emotions

Wendy Lorince, OTR/L, of Cleveland Clinic Children's Hospital for Rehabilitation will help children learn how to manage their anger and take control of their emotions. Using the book, "What to Do When Your Temper Flares," as a guide, Lorince will lead families through a "Drivers Ed" session where she teaches children to be "good drivers" during fun, hands-on activities.

Saturday, March 30, Sessions begin at 1:00 pm and 2:30 pm
Elyria Public Library System, West River Branch

Senseploration

Cuyahoga Falls Library

Children learn through exploring the world around them, but that world can sometimes be a little overwhelming, especially for children with disabilities. With this in mind, we're offering a new series of programming, called Senseploration! During Senseploration, we'll present a variety of activities that engage the senses, allowing children to take in new experiences at their own pace. Children with special needs and their families are invited to attend. Registration is required.

Super Hero Dance Party (including a Sensory-Friendly Party)

Avon Lake Public Library

Kids and parents/caregivers, come meet your favorite super heroes! Dance the night away with tunes by DJ. Judi, boogie with some of your favorite crime fighters, and get pictures in the picture booth with your ultimate super idol! As a part of this event, we'll also be hosting a sensory-friendly portion of the evening from 6:15 - 7:00 pm where the lights will be dimmed, the music volume is turned down, and a few sensory activities will also be included. Super Heroes for Kids in OHIO will be on hand throughout the entire event to meet, greet, and dance the night away with your little ones! Costumes for kids of all ages (yes, parents, even you, too!) are encouraged! No registration required.

- Thursday, March 7, 6:15 pm - 8:00 pm (Sensory-Friendly Party: 6:15 pm - 7:00 pm)

Two families learn how to connect with their child through music at a Music Therapy & More session in Westlake.
